According to an announcement in the Vancouver Province, Mr. and Mrs. David Donaldson, formerly of Rupert, are now the proud parents of a baby girl.

The Union steamship Chelohsin arrived from the north this forenoon with a number of passengers and a considerable amount of freight for points southward.

Miss Gleeson is going south in a day or two on a buying trip.
She will visit the fashion shows which are now being held in the southern cities for fall and winter goods.

Provincial Constable George Logan, formerly of Prince Rupert, is now stationed at Princeton, where he is acting as chief constable. Paddy has a Ford in which he covers his extensive district.

A report from Harry L. Wighton regarding the improvement of the city streets was presented at last night's council meeting and was laid over until the board of works goes further into the question.

The proposed conference between the Board of Trade and the City Council on the Cow Bay waterfront question has been deferred to allow the Board of Trade committee to make further preliminary investigations.

Joe McPhee, formerly of this town and now stationed at But-tedale as collector of customs, is doing well and was recently appointed collector of taxes. Some days as many as fourteen boats a day have to be cleared at the cannery port.

In the July issue of the Canadian National Railways Magazine the trip over the Grand Trunk Pacific from Edmonton to Prince Rupert is well described in an article by Sidney B. Galloway.
There also appears an excellent picture of the steamer Prince Rupert.

A letter from the secretary of the One Big Union was read at last night's council meeting requesting that it be exempted from the new municipal amusement tax by-law which is being brought in by the council. The letter was laid over until the by-law is further considered by the council.

The annual convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities is to be held this year at Nelson on October 6, 7 and 8. The city council last night instructed the clerk and solicitor to look into the matter of any changes that it might be advisable to bring up to the Municipal Act at that session.

Miss Edith Fraser, graduate nurse of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, arrived back from Anxoy by the Union steamship Chelohsin this morning. Miss Fraser just made the round trip as upon her arrival there on Monday morning she found a wire waiting with instructions for her to return at once to Prince Rupert whence she would proceed to Surf Inlet. Miss Katherine Morgan, daughter of J. R. Morgan, is ill at the camp and Miss Fraser will attend the sick girl. Mrs.
Morgan arrived in the city on Sunday.

Sport Briefs

Tomorrow night the Beavers and the Red Sox meet in an intermediate league fixture on the Acropolis Hill grounds. As the evenings are beginning to get rather short it will be up to the two teams to get started early.
It will perhaps be necessary to play only seven innings, but this should be decided before the game commences. As the league is now drawing to a close these matches are being watched very closely by all who are interested. The Beavers hope to be able to recover themselves from the trimming which they received from the Colts last week.

Just for a minute it looked last evening that the fans were going to enjoy a real stand up fight during the football game. Fanthorpe, back for the Grand Trunks, had been checking off Pat Conlin from rushing the other back. Pat walked right through him so Fan-thorpe apparently waited his next chance and went after him again.
This time the break occurred and the two players clinched. They broke away and were just standing up to one another when someone from the side lines rushed in and stopped the fracas.

With three "Eds" on the field last evening and two "Pats" it was difficult at times to know just who was wanted as someone might cry "Come on Ed" and the Ed that some of the players thought was needed might have been miles away from the ball.

Eddie Craggs was out of form for sure last evening especially in the first half when what balls he did not put over the bar, or over the side lines, or foul, were taken away from him. Very seldom did he get a good centre. In the second half there was much cheering for the Trail outside left but it is hardly known whether it was meant for sympathy or praise.

With two such players as Pat O'Donnell and Ed Ross any team could stand some very hard pressing and this is what happened last evening with the Grand Trunks. The Trail boys though weak in passing, quite frequently carried the leather to the opposing goal, but generally the right or left half of the Franks came in and stopped any dangerous play.

Frank Moore made a splendid showing as linesman last evening. All during the season Frank has been a most diligent attendant at all the games. He knows how the throw-ins ought to be made and watched the players' heels very closely lest they should raise them. He was generally quite close to the point where the ball crossed the line as he followed it up very closely.

SCIENTIST DIES IN LONDON CITY

Sir Norman Lockyer was Astrono-mer and Exploration Expert.
84 Years Old

LONDON, August 17.—Sir Norman Lockyer, an eminent scientist and authority on exploration, is dead here.

Sir Norman was born in 1836 and was also a famous astronomer and was Director of the Solar Physics Observatory at South Kensington and Professor of Astronomical Physics at the Royal College of Science. He was president of the British Scientific Association in 1903 and 1904.
He was the chief of several eclipse expeditions.

WRONG KIND LIQUOR FOR FIRE CHIEF

WINDSOR, Ont., August 17.— Clarence D. Fields, chief of the Windsor fire department, in a statement here to day, declared that while in Toronto recently attending the fire chiefs' convention, he was "shocked" at the open manner in which liquor was being offered for sale. "I had not been there twenty-four hours before I had all kinds of liquor offered me for a consideration. I could have had it in pints or in barrels, and one did not have to go into a back lane to get it either," he said.
