NAZIMOVA SHOW IS AGAIN ON TONIGHT

There Will be One Performance, Followed by Lecture by Lieut. Helmsing.

Judging from the crowds that turned out last night to see Nazimova, the star in the picture "Stronger Than Death," that was presented at the Westhorne last night, this rising emotional actress is rivaling all other stars in popularity. The scene of the story which has a strong and entrancing theme is in India where a favorite classic dancer, played by Nazimova, meets a hermit physician and falls in love with him.

The story is full of stirring episodes and exciting moments in which both girl and man take part. Nazimova is seen in some excellent classic dancing for which she is gifted. The story ends most beautifully and on the whole the picture is above the ordinary run of films.

There will be only one show tonight, that is, the first. Shortly after 9 o'clock, Lieut. Helmsing will repeat his lecture on the Zeebrugge blockade, having returned from Anxox by the Chelohsin this morning.

LABOR SITUATION IS SATISFACTORY

Provincial Labor Bureaus Have Employment for Many Men in the Province.

The report of the provincial labor bureaus for the month of July show that the work of these offices is steadily increasing in scope and effectiveness. In fact, the weekly placements throughout the province were higher during the past month than they have been in any month since the service commenced except in April when the spring season makes the demand especially large. The number of vacancies in proportion to the number of applicants was also much more satisfactory during the past month.

At Prince Rupert employment has been unusually active during the month, the placements being more than double those in June. The logging camps of the Islands and to the south and the mining camps of Stewart, Anxox and Alice Arm continue to absorb the most of the men available and during the past month there were many positions unfilled owing to the scarcity of men. Machine miners, loggers, shipyard workers, general laborers and sawmill men are in demand about the city and district.

Throughout other parts of the province farm help and railway work is giving employment to all.

WELL KNOWN MERCHANT IS DEAD AT STEWART

T. P. Lindsay, aged 68, a well known merchant of Alaska and northwest cities, died at Elovon Mile, Salmon River, last Wednesday morning from heart trouble. Owing to the storm it was impossible to bring the body to Elovon. He was the first merchant to reopen in Spokane after the big fire. Of late years he had been in business at Candie, above Nome.

RESTOCKING JASPER LAKES WITH FISH

A systematic plan for restocking lakes in Jasper Park with trout has been inaugurated by Col. S. Maynard Rogers, superintendent of the park. During July 18,000 trout fry have been received from the Government hatcheries and placed in lakes Pyramid, Patricia, Annette and Edith. All of these lakes are well suited to fish propagation and are within easy distance from park headquarters.
