Rupert's Appreciation is Shown Minister Fisheries

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Guest of Honor at Luncheon, is sanguine as to Possibilities of this Port.

Appreciation of the services he had done Prince Rupert in obtaining ship contracts for the shipyards and changing the legislation in regard to the fisheries was the keynote of the welcome extended to Hon. C. C. Ballantyne at the luncheon in the Hotel Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon. There was a capacity crowd of business and professional men present and the gathering was very representative. Fitting demonstration was made of the endorsement the minister is given here on his stand in regard to the fisheries question and the gathering was different from the most of receptions to public men, for a feeling of appreciation overshadowed the usual complaints that meet most men in similar capacities.

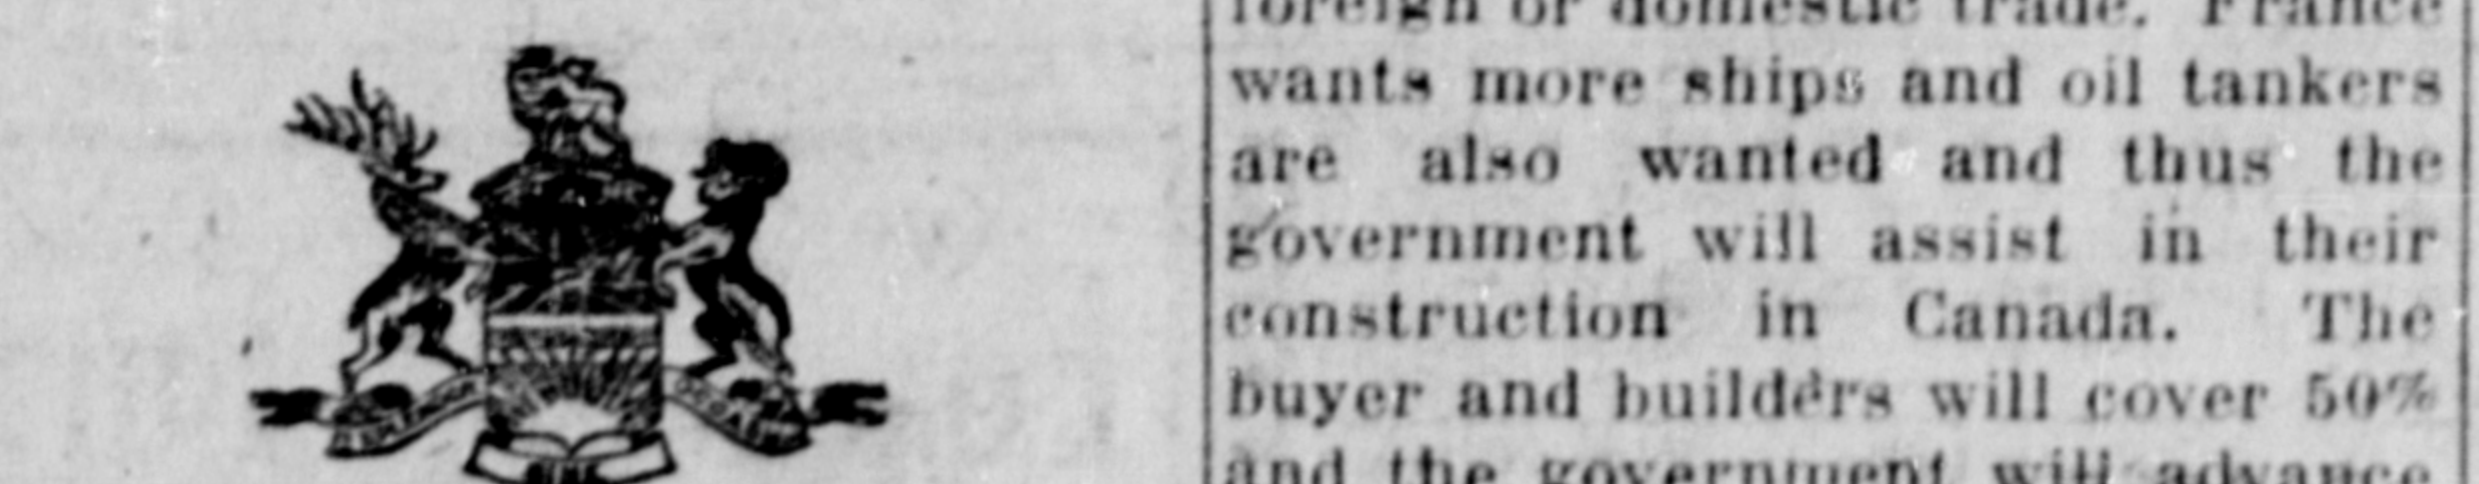

The mayor presided at the head of the luncheon table with Hon. Mr. Ballantyne and Col. Peck, M. P., on either side. As soon as the sumptuous repast had been dispensed with the toast to the king was duly responded to and with a few brief remarks the distinguished visitor was introduced amid a demonstration of applause.

Business Tour.
Mr. Ballantyne thanked the citizens for the welcome extended him and the splendid luncheon prepared. He complimented the city on having such a faithful representative at Ottawa as Col. Peck who was always keeping the interests of Prince Rupert to the fore, at the same time not forgetting Canada as a whole. He intimated that he was not on a political tour, but that he was on a visit to the Pacific Coast on the business of his department. He had learned much on his trip west over the Grand Trunk Pacific and in visiting points of interest about the city in the morning and he believed that it would prove of assistance in his department as well as to the government as a whole.

Will Get Station
He had been impressed with the railroad, but realized that money would have to be spent in improving the roadbed. Hon. Dr. Reid and Mr. Hanna might be trusted to look into this, though he was as surprised as Dr. Reid had been that there was no station here, but he gave assurance that the Minister of Railways would see to it that Prince Rupert had a station commensurate with her size and needs in the very near future.

He mentioned the superiority of the harbor and predicted a good future for the port. "Two new ships are being built here now," said Mr. Ballantyne, "and I can see no reason why they should not receive their first cargoes here. This port should have sufficient exports and imports to warrant the running of ocean vessels to it."

Optimism Well Based
"Many things have impressed me on my trip to Prince Rupert and one of the most impressive
