

We have another small Shipment of PRATT'S FLY CHASER

Keep the animals content-It is humane---sani-
---profitable to keep flies away.

The demand far exceeds the supply

The efficiency of Pratt's Fly Chaser is shown in the fact that the sales increase yearly to such an extent that the supply is divided among the various states and provinces pro rata.
Our original shipment was taken up so quickly that we urged a second small one successfully. This is now on hand. Get your bride, was bridesmaid.

PARTY IN HONOR OF MISS WILLA DYER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilhuly Enttain at Their Home on Fifth Avenue West.

Yesterday evening Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Gilhuly entertained a large party of friends at their home on Fifth Avenue West in honor of Miss Willa Dyer, the occasion being her birthday. Mrs. J. S.
Evans and Miss Rowena Dyer assisted in the arrangements and a very pleasant evening was spent by the young folks at dancing and games. Messrs. Alex. Gray and Wm. Balazno pleased all with the excellent music furnished for the dances.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sinclair, Misses M. Watt, E. Blair, E. Thompson, M. L. Wilson (Vancouver), D.
Barge, B. Vance, Eve Thompson, H. Hibbard, M. Lindsay, L. Carol and A. Kelly; Messrs. D. Jay, L.
Barron, M. Stephens, G. Roberts, J. Currie, J. McKay, R. Lancaster, and E. J. Smith.

BEAVERS AND SAWMILL PLAYED FINE BASEBALL

Last evening's 2 to 2, seven-inning tie game between the Sawmill and the Beavers was one of the best exhibitions of baseball staged this season. There was no scoring until the fifth, when the Sawmill got 1. They later collected another in the seventh but the Beavers piled in 2, so that it ended an even break. The game was a postponed fixture of the intermediate league schedule and will be played later.

R. C. McCorkell, the prominent Vanderhoof merchant, arrived in the city on last night's train.

Reginald Beaumont, superintendent of the Grand Trunk Pacific coast steamer service, went south on the Rupert last night.

Bros. & McMeekin went over the street this morning between 4th and 5th avenues. The driver escaped uninjured. Apparently the wheels locked and the heavy car was quickly precipitated over the side. Only the top of the car suffered any serious damage.

BODY WAS SCOOPED UP BY DREDGE BUCKET

Felix Jim, One Legged Indian, and Wife Drowned at Second Narrows, Vancouver, after Drinking

NORTH VANCOUVER, August 26.—At a double inquest held yesterday morning it was revealed that Felix Jim, a one legged Indian, and his wife were drowned in Burrard Inlet when their canoe upset. The tragedy took place near the Second Narrows and it is believed that Jim had been drinking.

The body was scooped up in a dredge bucket and thus the discovery was made of the deaths.

SPORT NEWS

If during the early part of the season the Beavers and the Sawmill had played as good baseball as they did last night there might have been a different story to tell this evening in the play-off.
Curtis and Green put up a splendid effort for the former, with McCullough and Astoria playing fine ball for the sawdust men.
McCullough made his first appearance last evening and made a splendid showing, holding Harry Astoria to the plate in fine style.

Hagsted, the first baseman for the Sawmill, was out of the game last night on account of an injured hand from Monday evening's match with the Colts.

Green pitched a good game for the Beavers last night and they ought to be in pretty good shape for an encounter with the Colts for the Labor Day trophy elimination. Green is by no means a stranger in Prince Rupert and pitched for the home team upon the occasion of the visit of the New Metlakatla nine. He made a splendid drive during the game into the deep right field, but Sherman was there on time and the pill landed securely in the fielder's glove. Not only did he save a three bagger, but later brought in the two runs for the Sawmill last night. Sherman was the Sawmill star alright.
