LABOR DAY KEPT WITH GREAT ENTHUSIASM; WHOLE CITY CELEBRATES

Labor Day Program Was Well Enjoyed

Trades and Labor Council put on splendid Celebration on water and land

A fine celebration held yesterday by the Trades and Labor Council proved the big attraction for everyone, both in the morning and afternoon. The water sports were pulled off, and in the afternoon field sports and games were held at the Acropolis grounds. There was a slight sprinkle of rain in the morning but the afternoon was dry so the proceedings were unhampered by the weather and all in charge of the event are pleased with the success. Well over a thousand people entered the gates of the grounds during the afternoon and great enthusiasm manifested over every event on the very complete program.

EARLY HUNTERS TO APPEAR IN COURT

New Game Warden is Already on the Job and Gets Results.

Game Warden J. W. McIntosh, who just arrived from Vancouver at the end of the week, was on the job yesterday with the result that six local citizens are summoned to appear before Superintendent Magistrate McMullin this afternoon charged with infractions of the B. C. Game Act. The particulars of the charges are as follows:—

- E. Hellman, charged with carrying firearms without license on person.
 - O. A. Johnson, killing two deer without license.
 - Fred. Stephens, killing one deer without license.
 - A. B. Nicholls, one deer without license.
 - R. E. Lewis, two deer without license.
 - S. Wilson, two deer without license.
- Several deer and four rifles were seized by the warden.

KETCHIKAN TAX RATE TWENTY MILLS

KETCHIKAN, Sept. 7.—The city council at an adjourned regular meeting set the tax rate for the year at two per cent, the same as that charged last year. As the assessed value of the town has been greatly increased the total amount of taxes to be collected this year will also be increased.

The Tongass Trading Company was ordered to remove a loading platform from the alley at the rear of the store. A permit was given for the construction of the platform with the understanding that it was to be removed each night so that it might not block traffic. The permit was not lived up to.

Four police "blinkers" are to be established at suitable locations. When an officer is wanted central telephone operator will switch on the lights as a signal.

GRANBY CO. IS GRANTED STAY PROCEEDINGS

May Continue to Mine Coal up to 100,000 Tons Until Appeal Heard.

VICTORIA, Sept. 7.—Pending an appeal from Mr. Justice Gregory's judgment favoring the E. & N. railway against the Granby Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co., involving title to the Cassidy coal areas, a stay of execution has been granted by Mr. Justice Gallagher, providing the Granby Company furnishes security to the amount of $75,000.

Under the ruling, the company may mine 100,000 tons of coal but no more without the consent of the court.

Oldest Chorister in the World.

Approaching his 87th year, Richard Stapells, 54 Spruce St., Toronto, can lay claim to being the oldest chorister in the world. Entering a church choir in his home town of Rochester, England, about the year 1852 he has been a member of church choirs ever since, a period of 38 years, and as far as can be ascertained, this establishes a record. Just recently Mr. Staples entered on his 47th year as a member of the choir of All Saints' Anglican Church, Sherburne Street, Toronto, and he is still regarded as a very valuable member of that congregation.

No less than 33 halibut boats bringing 373,500 pounds of fish marketed their catches on Sunday and this morning, and the whole is being rushed through to Chicago and other cities in eastern United States in bond, in refrigerator cars for the delectation of the connoisseurs of the east. The average price of the number one grade was fifteen cents, although one boat sold as low as 12c.

In addition to the halibut there was about 30,000 pounds of fresh salmon sold here.

The following are the arrivals:

Mayor of Cork is Still Conscious on 26th Day of His Hunger Strike

LONDON, September 7.—Zan MacSwiney, mayor of Cork, is still conscious on the 26th day of his hunger strike at Brixton Jail.

Bonar Law, replying for the Government to the labor appeal, said: "The crown must be upheld. We cannot compromise. His victim asked neither mercy nor compromise. The real sympathy is due to the widows of the policemen slain by MacSwiney's political friends."

The general feeling of the people of England is that the law must be upheld at any cost and that if MacSwiney likes to kill himself he should be allowed to do so.

SCHOOL OPENED FOR FALL TERM

All Children Will be Accommodated Immediately if Baptist Church Gives Room.

School reopened this morning with all schools well filled and crowded in some instances. There were 35 new pupils at King Edward, 20 at Borden and 16 at Seal Cove which is a larger number than ever admitted before. It is hoped to open a temporary room in the Baptist Church which will take care of a number of children until another can be secured further toward the west end where the need really arises. The Baptist Church will decide tonight if they will give a room. If their decision is not satisfactory it will mean that the children will have to stay home until quarters are found. Outside of this suitable accommodation will be found and full time will be given all children.

CHINESE CONSUL

Dr. Koliang Yih Visited City Sunday and was Suitably Impressed

Dr. Koliang Yih, Chinese consul at Vancouver, was in town Sunday on his way from Anyox, where he has been looking into the fisheries. While here he called on Mayor McClymont and met the members of the local Chinese colony. He also inspected the shipyard and the cold storage plant and was much impressed with the developments which are going on here.

NEW WESTMINSTER BEATS VANCOUVER IN LACROSSE GAME

VANCOUVER, Sept. 7.—In connection with the holiday sports the chief was the lacrosse match in which New Westminster defeated Vancouver by a score of 6 to 4. The match was a close one there was a very large crowd out to watch the game.

Word has been received by the G. T. P. office here that M. B. Walton, divisional superintendent at Edmonton, has been appointed general superintendent here, taking over the work formerly done by H. McCall. He reports to J. B. Cameron, general superintendent at Vancouver.

C. F. Martin has been appointed superintendent of transportation at Vancouver, B. C., reporting to Mr. Walton on matters affecting the line between Prince Rupert and Edmonton.

It is rumored around town that A. Kitpatrick is being transferred.

SEARCH PARTY AFTER JACOBS

Headed by Constable Akroyd, a party of searchers has taken to the hills of Princess Royal Island to find trace of Jacobs, the man who is alleged to have shot at Ettinger down the coast recently.

According to particulars received last night by the local office from Constable Akroyd, Jacobs and Ettinger were hand loading alone 14 miles from Swan-son Bay and 2 miles from Bute-dale, when Jacobs fired four shots at Ettinger, one of them hitting him near the base of the skull and narrowly missing the spinal cord. Ettinger wrested the gun from Jacobs and rowed to Swan-son Bay for medical aid while Jacobs took to the hills.

Jacobs had no means with him of getting food.
