On the occasion of the visit of the Imperial Press delegates to Duncan the Cowichan Leader got out a special miniature edition printed on book paper as a greeting to the visitors. The Leader said of Cowichan what Prince Rupert people might have said if they had been given the opportunity: "In Cowichan we have big fish in our waters, big game on our hills, big trees in our forests, big mills on our coast, big crops in our fields, big pheasants to eat 'em, big openings for pulp plants, big hopes for a bigger Britain, big hearts to welcome you and lots of room for all Britishers."

Swimming Gala Proved Attraction at Salt Lakes

Crowd who went across harbor to watch Water Sports placed at 800—Captain Bealey big winner

The sixth annual gala of the Prince Rupert Swimming Club was held on Sunday afternoon under most auspicious circumstances. The day was a beautiful one and there must have been 800 persons who gathered at the Salt Lakes. The improvements made at the lakes in the form of a new diving platform and roadway are noticeable and much credit is due to the committee who were in charge, consisting of J. Day Bell, Wm. A. Matheson and John Gurrie, whose energetic efforts were largely responsible for the success scored.

A high quality of swimming talent was displayed, many young people entering in the events this time who could hardly swim last year. The relay races were especially close and the tug-of-war was very interesting. In the ladies' events there was a noticeable scarcity of entries which was somewhat disappointing to the officials in charge.

Captain Bealey.

In the men's swimming and diving events a newcomer, Capt. Bealey, who arrived from Vancouver last week, proved a big prize winner, leading easily in many races. He will be a decided acquisition to the local club if he remains in the city and will also encourage local swimmers to greater efforts. Captain Bealey learned swimming in the Old Country but was for years a member of the Vancouver Swimming Club. He recently returned from five year's service overseas with the flying corps.

Prize Winners.

Following is the result of the events on Sunday's program: Boys' race—William Stewart, Douglas Frizzell. Girls' race—Myra Harvey, Dorothy Thompson. 100 yards championship race of Northern B. C.—Captain Bealey, Calder.

Plunge dive, won by Bealey, but conceded by him to Calder.

Fancy dive—Bealey, Barron.

25 yd. handicap race—Bealey, Bryce.

50 yd. handicap race—Bealey, Boddie.

Relay race—First, Sons of England team, Bell, Fanthorpe, Crisp, and Fanthorpe. Second, Dry Dock, Bryce, Calder, Corkle, Calder. Other teams were: Prince Rupert Swimming Club, George Tite, R. Davidson, Geo. Hill and J. Boddie; G. W. V. A., Barclay, Bealey, Plint and Kelly.

The tug-of-war was won by Boddie's team consisting of Gibb, Boddie, Hudson, Smith and Clementson. The losers were Day Bell, George Kerr, B. Fanthorpe, Crisp, and D. Fanthorpe.

The pillow fight was won by Jack Boddie after W. A. Hudson, Ralph Smith, Gibb and Rod. McTae had been eliminated.
