Gifts of Meaning

At a time when ties are drawn the closest, gifts have a deeper meaning. For centuries the jeweler's art has furnished the most cherished of gifts. They are particularly suitable and being small the transportation costs little. They carry value and meaning.

LAND REGISTRY ACT

(Sections 36 and 134.)
Re Application No. 41117-1. File 6216.
TAKE NOTICE that application has been made to register Hubert O. Grewe of Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner under 15 Tax Sale Deeds from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert, bearing date the 28th day of November, 1917, of ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Prince Rupert, more particularly known and described as: Lots twenty-three (23) and twenty-four (24), Block thirty-seven (37), Lots eight (8), nine (9) and ten (10), Block thirty-five (35) and thirty-four (34), Block thirty-nine (39), Lots thirteen (13) and fourteen (14), Block forty-one (41), Lots fifteen (15) and sixteen (16), Block forty-two (42), Lots one (1), two (2) and thirty (30), Block forty-nine (49), and Lots eighteen (18) and nineteen (19), Block fifty-one (51). All in section 8, City of Prince Rupert, (Map 923). You are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 35 days from the date of the service of this notice (which may be effected by publication in the Daily News), and your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" with amendments, and to the following extract therefrom:—
"and in default of a caveat or certificate of his pendency being filed before the registration of such tax sale, all persons claiming through or under the person entitled under the provisions of this Act, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be forever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."
AND WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands, in the name of Hubert O. Grewe,
AND WHEREAS on investigating the title it appears that prior to the 13th day of October, 1916, (the date on which the said lands were sold for taxes) you were the registered, assessed or equitable owners thereof,
FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the said lands in the name of Hubert O. Grewe, unless you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, if any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

NEW PICTURE AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave"

Two new co-stars hold the screen at the Westholme Theatre for the current bill in a Thomas H. Ince production entitled "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave," Douglas MacLean and Doris May.

It is a happy team which these two players provide. They have youth, good looks and plenty of personality and it is practically a foregone conclusion that future pictures of theirs will be eagerly sought after.

The present picture is splendid light comedy, with a strong romantic interest, and centres around a training camp in which men are prepared for the recent war. "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave" does not, however, have any war atmosphere. It is pure fun and romance from first to last and is remotely removed from anything in the least gruesome or forboding. It is an adaptation from a story by Mary Roberts Rinehart, recently published in one of the popular national magazines. Mrs. Rinehart is an author who is constantly in touch with the wants of the public and her "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave" is proof conclusive of this statement.

TERRACE

School reopened here on Tuesday with Mr. McNeil, Miss Peirson and Miss Marsh the teachers in charge. Miss Marsh has her primary classes in the Progress Hall.

Old band players and new persons who are to form the new Terrace band met last night in Progress Hall and formulated a program for the winter practices. New instruments have arrived for the organization.

J. Bruce Johnston, of the Lakelse Hotel, stated while in town last week that business at the Lake was better than ever before.

Mrs. W. Kirkpatrick left last week for an extended visit to her home in Ontario.

L. H. Kenny has been appointed deputy mining recorder for this district, Mr. Kirkpatrick having resigned.

Ripe tomatoes are commencing to arrive in town from local farms. A good crop will be harvested this year.

STEWART

Work on the property of the Bush Mines Limited is progressing favorably under the direction of O. B. Bush. A crosscut tunnel is being driven to tap the main ore bodies at a depth of 250 feet.

The first dance of the season took place Friday night at the Ocean View Cabaret and was well attended. Refreshments were served and the dawn was breaking when the dancers left.

Mrs. E. M. Beale is selling the stock and fixtures of the Beverley Cafe and will return to Victoria.

W. H. Watson has been elected secretary treasurer of the Stewart Citizens' Association by acclamation.

PRINCE GEORGE

Charles Miller, of the Toronto law firm, Miller, Ferguson and Hunter, visited here last week to look over his property in the city. He contemplates building some residences for sale.

Premier Oliver and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of Lands, addressed a crowded meeting in the Princess Theatre here Saturday evening.

W. P. Beal has arrived from Phoenix to take charge of the Prince George school in succession to Ivor Bassett who has accepted the principalship at Revelstoke. Miss K. Halliday of Victoria succeeds Miss Errol Branick.

School Inspector Gordon H. Gower returned last week from a visit to Penny and Dome creek where schools are being asked for. The increase of schools in the district is taken as a mark of development.
