International Court
At The Hague.

The despatches announce that it is proposed to establish an international court at The Hague. The idea is a good one although not new. The difficulty will be in enforcing the decisions of the court. Nations like individuals have not yet learned to work in concert.

The United States Republican idea is that it is not correct to try to enforce the findings of the court, but to use moral suasion. That is as useless as trying to induce temperance by supplying all the liquor and beer possible and advising people not to touch it. We are too young in development to expect to get along for many generations to come without using force. Mind is greater than matter, but matter counts a good deal yet.

It would be a distinct advantage for the United States to join the League of Nations, but it is for them to decide. In the meantime it is satisfactory to think that the league is getting into working order without the aid of the States.

Labor Paper
Plays with Fire.

After taking some Soviet money and holding it for a time the labor newspaper, The Herald, has found that public opinion is so much opposed to the idea of the paper accepting the bribe that it has decided to refuse. It took a long time for the owners of the paper to choose the strait and narrow path, but it has come out right in the end.

The sending of cash to the Herald is making people wonder to what extent other papers are in the pay of the Bolsheviks. The model Russian Government seems to consider bribery to be a virtue rather than a failing. It is possible too that the Herald would have accepted that money if it had not become known to the public that it had been received.

The News is not blaming the Herald. Financing a labor paper is very difficult. It simply goes to show that labor leaders are no more infallible than other people, and that when they pose as the only exponents of honest government or honest living we know that they have not yet met the tempter or that they are of the minority.

Interest Here
In 16th Battalion.

Much interest will be taken here in the reorganization of the 16th Battalion as a peacetime military unit. A number of Prince Rupert boys were members of the 16th overseas and Col. Peck is still to be its head. Just what arrangements the Colonel will make are not apparent, but the fact that it is his regiment will make Prince Rupert people take a keen interest in its success for years to come.

One Long Gala
For Whole Week.

With the carnival and fair only a few days away it looks as if it would be the greatest in the history of the city. The fair is, as always, a big event to many. It is the one occasion when a good many northern people feel that the serious work of the year is completed and they are free to give themselves up to pure enjoyment.

This year there is to be a new feature in the form of a street carnival. Already this is being prepared and it seems as if there would be every opportunity for people to enjoy themselves in any way they may see fit.

The visit of the seaplane will add much to the general interest, and will bring people here who otherwise would not have made the trip this year. To take a ride in the air, even if it is a little expensive, is a novelty to most people.

In spite of all the counter attractions on this occasion, the exhibition itself is not being neglected by any means. There will be a good exhibit and all sorts of other things going on at the fair building during three days of the week. This is the central idea of the week, the side shows and flying and boat racing are simply auxiliary efforts to make the week one long gala.

THE TORTURES
OF RHEUMATISMHappily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 OTTAWA ST., HULL, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered from Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again.

One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives" the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

15:36 p.m., 20.5 feet.

Low, 9:36 a.m., 5.7 feet.

22:11 p.m., 4.3 feet.

Low, 10:13 a.m., 7.1 feet.

22:53 p.m., 5.4 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

Sport Briefs

The program for the Aquatic Day at next week's fair has just been arranged and shows the afternoon of Saturday, September 25, is to be a most interesting and entertaining one. The water sports commence at 1 o'clock with a grand water carnival parade from the City Hall. A band will lead the way to the water front, where there will be the opening with naval salute and parade of harbor craft from steamers down. There will be a trawl-setting contest, which will be quickly followed by water races of all kinds. At 2.15 the Campbell Cup speed boat race, in which much interest is centered, will commence. Log rolling contests and aquaplaning will be further features. The entries for the pleasure boat race for the Rowing Club challenge cup will close on September 20.

The committee in charge of the rowing and canoeing contests is especially desirous that there should be a large number of entries. The races at the Labor Day celebration in these classes were not well entered, with the result that there were prize-winners the quality of whose racing was not of very much worth. There will be canoe race doubles for men, doubles for lady and gentleman and row boat races the same, with also an event for boys. The ladies, it is hoped, will turn out in force and do their share. The races are healthful and graceful and the prizes are very substantial.

President Irigoyen, of Argentine Republic, and his cabinet are considering projects of law for the suppression of limitation of horse racing, it is announced. Buenos Aires has one of the finest race courses in the world operated by its famous Jockey Club, where millions of pesos change hands in a year under the pari-mutuel betting system. Races are held twice a week, Thursdays and Sundays, and on the frequent holidays. The attendance is from 15,000 to 20,000 persons. The newspapers have commented on the fact that, as a corollary to the mounting cost of living, the betting public has increased its wagers on the races. Where total bets on a Sunday were formerly 800,000 pesos, they now sometimes aggregate 3,000,000 pesos. The administration believes that the Thursday races, at least, ought to be suppressed.

Louis A. Firpo, South American heavyweight boxing champion, is soon to visit the United States, where he will seek the advantages to be derived from good trainers and expert management. Firpo weighs 213 pounds. His title was gained by defeating boxers in Chile and other South American countries. In a match in Buenos Aires in June he knocked out Antonio Jirsa, who styles himself the "Czechoslovak champion," in the first three minute round of a scheduled 10 round bout. Firpo has a considerable ring history and before taking up boxing was a professional Greco-Roman wrestler.

At last the two contenders for the Northern B.C. championship have arranged together and on September 26th the Butchers, commercial league champions, and the Colts, who hold similar honors in the intermediate league, will meet in a game that promises to be the most interesting of this baseball season. The Colts, with a long run of good luck and not a little good playing, have fought their way to victory in a close race for the top of the intermediate league, while the Butchers, starting out as a handful of amateurs in June, have become a very creditable bunch of baseballers. A good live game is, therefore, promised for Sunday week.

Two-color window cards take the eye quickly. See them at the News Job Department.
