

INDIANS FROM MASSET BRING GOOD EXHIBIT

Display of Native Work — Will Give Concert During Stay Here This Week.

The Haida Indians are here in force this year, the first time that they have ever attended the fair in large numbers. Practically all the Masset village are here and they have brought a good exhibit of Indian work. From Masset there are entries of dairy produce, potatoes, totems and model canoes, chief houses, bows and arrows, mats and baskets.

George H. Baley of the Coquassetza Institute is bringing an exhibit of school work and during the week he will give a banquet to the alumni in the parlor of the Methodist Church. This is the annual event when the head of the institute meets his former pupils and entertains them here.

The Masset Indians, organized by Chief Albert Adams, will give a concert at the exhibition hall during the week at which all the performers are to be Indians.

Thomas Deasy, Indian Agent, is here this year for the fair and is superintending the placing of the exhibits at the fair, work of which has already commenced.

VETS ARE NOW ELIMINATED

Sons of England Will Meet Trail in Exhibition Football Finals Next Week.

The Sons of England had little difficulty in holding the Great War Veterans in the elimination game for the exhibition cup on Saturday afternoon and defeated them by a score of 3 to 0, thus winning the right to contest the final with the Trail next week. At no time did the match take on much enthusiasm for the teamwork gained by a season's practice by the Sons had its telling effect over the more or less unfinished efforts of the Veterans. Playing on both sides, in fact, was of a mediocre nature, Kelly and Ed. Ross taking the stellar roles for the Vets, with occasional bursts of speed by Petrie. During the first half the Vets did make several near goal kicks which touched the goal posts. Tinker played a consistently good game for the Sons of England and Darton proved a fortress of strength as a full back.

The first score was made by the Sons on a long pass from centre to Tinker and converted to the goal by Lyons when goal-keeper Waldorf, for the Veterans, was away from his position in the field. A few moments later a stop by Waldorf, Tinker again gained the ball and made the second count. The third tally came in the second half when Lambie kicked in off Fanthorpe from half back. Towards the end the play loosened up and the Vets held the ball in their end most of the time but were unable to send a good ball between the goal posts. In the second half Fraser, of the Veterans, cut his arm badly and had to leave the field.

W. McCulloch refereed in his usual effective manner with Harry Day and "Doc" Clapperton on the side lines.

ANOTHER SPEED BOAT COMING FOR RACES

Anox Sending Postmaster Eve's Speedy Craft.

Word was received by wire on Saturday afternoon that there is to be a second speed boat cup contender from Anox for Saturday's event. W. F. Eve, the postmaster from that place, is bringing his "Priscilla" down for the contest. The Priscilla is a speedy little craft and has been a local rival for Ed. Campbell's well known racer "Wayward Girl."

Anox is just doubling up on her chances of taking that cup home while preparations continue apace here on the three new boats under construction. Tom Hooper's "Folly II" will take the water tomorrow.

G. A. McNicholl returned to the city by last evening's train.

BRITISH MAY ARBITRATE

Possibility of Home Rule being Submitted to League of Nations

LONDON, Sept. 20. — That Britain would be willing to submit settlement of the Irish question to the league of nations if it is not settled before the United States elections in November, is the statement made by the foreign office today. Britain is prepared to take radical action to appease American sentiment, except that it will not consider the independence of Ireland.

The official statement said: "If

Cox is elected we will put no stone in the way of settlement along the lines he suggested. If settlement is not reported by the November elections, we are willing to put the entire situation up to the league and abide by its decision. Britain is now willing to give southern Ireland the most liberal form of home rule, with control of its own customs, excises, even mails and police, providing it agrees to terms, without coercing the six northern Ulster counties, which must have their own parliamentary government. Lloyd George has put the matter up to Ireland through a standing committee recently appointed by the Irish conference at Dublin.

Britain fully realizes the tremendous weight of Irish-American influence in American policies. In order to secure the closest Anglo-American co-operation and to settle the Irish difficulties, we are willing to do anything consistent with safety and honor."

Official reports from Ireland indicate a split in Sinn Fein ranks on the premier's latest proposal.

As to De Valera, he is free to return to Ireland whenever he wants. All reports from Ireland indicate that he will clash with Griffiths, who is acting president, just as he clashed in New York with Cohalan.

Mrs. A. E. Oakley left by this morning's train for Edson where she will join Mr. Oakley who is engaged in engineering work with a construction company at that place.
