DAILY EDITION. Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1920.

To Reorganize Athletic Association.

On Thursday night the annual general meeting of the Prince Rupert Amateur Athletic Association is to be held in the Board of Trade rooms and all Prince Rupert people who are members or who wish to become members are invited to attend on that occasion. Officers for the year will be elected and the policy for the season planned.

President McMordie, whose energy was largely responsible for the successful carrying out of the work of improving the rooms at Acropolis Hill, is anxious to resign and let some younger men carry on. He suggests that now they have suitable rooms and some apparatus all paid for and a little money in the bank with which to open the season, it is up to them to manage the institution and to make as much of it as they wish.

A further suggestion will be made at the meeting that the entrance fee be lowered in order to popularize the institution. This will come up and be discussed and voted on by the members. It is for the young men to decide what they will do.

It would be difficult to get a better start for an athletic association than that now offered. The big exhibition building is given rent free. A good dressing room with shower baths has been installed and is paid for. All that is now necessary is to get a good instructor, pay him well, and have classes organized and schedules of games drawn up. Doubtless there will be a good demand by basketball and other teams and there is no reason why a splendid season of indoor sport should not result. One absolutely necessary thing is to have a first rate paid instructor, who will give practically all his time to the work. To get such a man and pay him well in a town like this should not be difficult. Everything depends on proper organization.

English Papers On Hunger Strike.

It is interesting to notice the articles in the English newspapers in connection with the hunger strike of the Mayor of Cork, especially those newspapers that are against the Lloyd George Government. The Manchester Guardian of September 3, only one day short of four weeks ago, said: "Wild riot prevails in the greatest city of Ireland and the Lord Mayor of Cork is dying or dead."

A week later on September 10 under a headline "Anarchy in Ireland" the same paper says:—

"Before these lines are read the Lord Mayor of Cork will probably be dead. We say nothing of the human aspect of this event, the slow extinction of a brave spirit sacrificing life for an ideal, with all the world as spectator. There is something ennobling in the spectacle, and it will have its deep and far-reaching effects. A worse tragedy, because unredeemed by a spark of generosity and destined only to futility and shame, is the refusal of the Government to respond to an almost world-wide appeal for clemency. The appeal has failed; the ruthlessness and the folly have gone on. It is a great test of government and of our governing men. They are now embarked on a course from which it is hard to see how they can turn back. It is a disastrous course; it may lose them and us a kingdom. Of course, it does not stand alone. It cannot stand alone. It is part of a policy—the policy of moral cowardice and self-defeating force. It is hard for us here to realize what is going on in Ireland, and yet there never was a time when it was more important that our eyes should be open. Parliament is prorogued. The Government gives us no assistance. Mr. George is much concerned for the freedom of Poland, but for Irish freedom to all seeming he cares not a rap. The Labor party is prepared to go all lengths to prevent a war against Russia which the Government had not the smallest intention of declaring, but is a good deal less concerned about the war against Ireland which they have actually declared and are busily prosecuting."

Aviator's Failure To Reach This City.

There seems to have been a prevalent notion here that the porposed seaplane demonstration was all camouflage, and that the plane was really not expected to arrive. This is absolutely incorrect. No one was more disappointed than the fair directors at the failure of the birdman to put in an appearance.

The wireless messages, which gave the idea that the plane was wrecked at Hidden Inlet, were confusing, but the complication arose owing to the name of the rescuing boat being named "Hidden Inlet." Lieut. Brown, who had such stirring adventures in his endeavor to reach here, was probably the most disappointed man of all.

HER CASE SEEMED HOPELESS

But "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Health and Strength

29 ST. ROSE ST., MONTREAL.

"I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives". This medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well.

I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia—had suffered for years; and nothing I took did me any good.

I read about "Fruit-a-tives" and tried them. After taking a few boxes, of this wonderful medicine made from fruit juices, I am now entirely well"

Thursday, September 30.

High, 2:32 a. m., 20.4 feet.
14:34 p. m., 21.7 feet.
Low, 8:32 a. m., 5 feet.
21:5 p. m., 2.8 feet.

Friday, October 1.

High, 3:13 a. m., 19.8 feet.
15:12 p. m., 21.4 feet.
Low, 9:9 a. m., 5.7 feet.
21:48 p. m., 3.2 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

IN PROBATE.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

THAT a dollar is not worth much these days, but it is satisfactory to remember you can still lend it to a friend.

• • •

THAT nothing but contempt will be felt for the men who threw the big ball game last year and were found out.

• • •

THAT it is a real pleasure to know the players got only ten thousand dollars of the hundred thousand they were promised.

• • •

THAT perhaps it was because of the small pay, one of them squealed.

• • •

THAT what would the city council be without some pryotechnics?

• • •

THAT we should all have been getting excited over the coming world series if it hadn't been for Billy Maharg and the tales he is telling.

• • •

THAT the United Farmers are out for protection and the National Liberal and Conservative Party of Canada Ltd. Lbty. are also out for tariff revision upwards. Tom Richardson of the labor party has not been heard from on the tariff issue.

• • •

THAT Russia seems to be getting paid in kind for her little military splurge. How the Soviet wishes it had accepted reasonable terms from the Poles.

• • •

THAT revision of the tariff seems to be bothering some people.

• • •

THAT what is bothering most of us is whether there is to be a revision of the local tariff on coal and eats.

• • •

THAT it must not be a revision upward.

• • •

THAT Prince George is to have a semi-weekly paper. Very soon it will be a really truly city with a daily on which the owner will have an opportunity to spend any spare cash he may happen to own.

• • •

THAT there is no hobby so useful in the way of absorbing cash as a daily newspaper.

• • •

THAT it must have been a woman hater who remarked: "A hippopotamus has too much sense to try to act cute, but it is different with a fat woman."

• • •

THAT you may convince a man he is wrong, but doing so you make an enemy.

• • •

THAT you can't convince a woman she is wrong, so don't attempt it.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

September 29, 1910.

Owners of shacks on city streets and lanes have been notified that these must be removed or the city will have them removed on its own.

• • •

The city has decided to pay $5,000 each for two lots in Cow Bay on which to build a municipal steam electric light plant.

• • •

Sidewalks on Second Avenue are to be widened to further provide for fire protection in the city.

• • •

Coroner's jury found that Charles Dayley met death by misadventure when he fell from a sidewalk across a creek near the Grandview Hotel sustaining concussion of the brain.

SHOT SELF WITH A DOUBLE-BARRELLED GUN NEAR NIMKISH

VANCOUVER, Sept. 28.—Wm. Brown, a returned soldier, who recently disappeared from Nimkish logging camp, has been found at the B.C. Packers hatchery dead, shot in the head with a double-barrelled gun. It is supposed to be a case of suicide.

FELL OVERBOARD LAUNCH KEPT GOING

VANCOUVER, Sept. 28.—A gasboat sailing in circles for hours and then running ashore at Putney Point led to the discovery that Junion Henry Blair, a fisherman of Chemainus, had apparently fallen overboard and drowned.
