HAPPY WEDDING TOOK PLACE LAST EVENING

Miss Jessie Bury Becomes Bride of Sidney V. Reith at Anglican Church.

At St. Andrews Anglican Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Jessie Bury, sister of Richard Bury and Mrs. Blake of this city, was married to S. V. Reith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Oakley, Fourth Avenue East, Rev. Canon G. A. Rix officiating. The bride, who was given away by her brother, was groomed most daintily in white satin and georgette trimmed with beads, with black velvet picture hat. Miss Nellie McDonald, also daintily in pale blue silk, was the bridesmaid, while the bridegroom was supported by his brother, Leonard Reith. There was a large number of relatives and friends on hand to witness the happy ceremony.

After the service the bridal party proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Brewerton, Fourth Avenue East, where a delightful wedding breakfast was served to fourteen relatives and friends. Later in the evening a reception was held when a crowd of acquaintances gathered to congratulate the young couple. Both the house and church were gaily decorated with flowers provided from the gardens of local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Reith had planned to go south on the Prince Rupert last night but owing to the wreck the honeymoon trip will not commence until Sunday night when they leave on the Prince George for Vancouver, Seattle, Calgary and Edmonton, returning here in about three weeks' time to take up their residence on Fifth Avenue West.

The couple are well known in Prince Rupert and there are many friends to wish them happiness. Mr. Reith is connected with the city engineer's department at the City Hall, while Mrs. Reith has been a popular employee at the store of H. S. Wallace.

SHOT HUSBAND WHEN ASLEEP

Mrs. Jackson is Condemned to Hang—Danced Night After the Murder.

EDMONTON, Oct. 1.—(By mail)—In the trial of Mrs. Sarah Jackson, who was convicted of murdering her husband and sentenced to be hanged in December next, it developed, according to the evidence, that the convicted woman was the clandestine lover of a treaty Indian, Zerna Coutelle, and as a result there were quarrels between husband and wife.

On the night of the murder when her husband and children were fast asleep, Mrs. Jackson took a shotgun and shot her husband through the back of the head. Then, assisted by her fifteen-year-old daughter Dora, she wrapped the dead body in a horse blanket, placed it on a sled and deposited it in the stable. Next night they went to a neighbor's house and danced as if nothing had happened beyond the ordinary.

Next day, assisted by Coutelle, they took the body to Swan Lake, where it was put through the ice where the fishermen had made openings for their nets.

Mrs. Jackson then gave out the story that her husband had left her and she did not know where he had gone.

In the spring the ice disappeared and the body floated on the lake and it was taken by the woman and her daughter and buried in the muskeg.

A plea of insanity was put in, witnesses declaring that prisoner was often crazy.

SCARCITY OF NURSES

Conditions of Employment in Great Britain do Not Encourage Entering Profession

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The lack of nurses which is now experienced all over the country is a serious matter. Even large city hospitals are feeling the trouble and in smaller institutions it is said to be acute. Girls will not come forward for training. Nor does there seem to be any likelihood of a change for the better.

The reasons which are given to explain the dearth vary with each observer, but on certain points there is agreement. The present age at which a nurse is allowed to begin her training is certainly too high. Some of our greatest hospitals refuse to accept any woman until she is 23. She may, it is true, go to other institutions before this age, but what she does there will not avail her later when her "training" begins.

This means, in practice, that if a woman decides to become a nurse she must either go to an institution which is not recognized at the very time when she is most likely to learn and has most enthusiasm or else she must hang about waiting till she is old enough. Her friends will probably be working at remunerative tasks during this period.

The result is that most girls, when they reach the necessary age, are already making their careers, and have no inclination to interrupt them for the miserable wages and doubtful comfort of a probationers' life. The hospitals have "missed their market." That they have gained anything is very doubtful. The nursing service of young girls during the war was admirable. There is no reason to think that it would be less effective now, in time of peace.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

To whom it may concern:

Take notice that the partnership hitherto existing between L. L. Davis of Kitwanga, and G. A. Taylor of Port Essington was dissolved by mutual consent as from the 20th September, 1920. Any debts to be settled by E. L. Davis.

F. Biddlecome appeared in the police court this morning on two charges, wife desertion and vagrancy. After evidence had been taken from the deserted wife, brother-in-law and Indian Agents Perry and Collison an understanding was reached whereby Biddlecome will support his wife and three children. The wife is a native of Kinloch.
