VANCOUVER HAS HUGE RAINFALL

Nearly Twice as much Fell in City to South as there was here in September

Prince Rupert had only 5.2 inches of rainfall last month as compared to 10.37 inches which Vancouver had in the same period. The precipitation during the month here was quite light and there was no steady storms, all coming in brief showery spells. Some people writing from Vancouver say that it was like a continuous downpour all the time there.

The warmest day here was on September 29 when the reading was 72, the lowest on September 24 and 25, 38. The mean temperature for the month was 50.7.

EDMONTON LABORERS ASK SEVEN DOLLARS

Harvest Work in Alberta Will Take Two Months and Has Just Started.

EDMONTON, October 5.—Farm laborers around the city of Edmonton are receiving $6 a day with board and are now asking for $7. The crops are exceptionally good and threshing has only begun. The work of harvesting will last about four months.

Light frosts were reported from many prairie points on September 28, but nearly all the grain had matured sufficiently to be out of danger.

Farmers threshing in the vicinity of Wainwright report a yield of 100 bushels of oats to the acre on some fields.

BEER LICENSES ARE DISCUSSED

Royal Bar Given New Lease of Life, But Turns Down F. McGee Again.

F. McGee appeared before the city council last evening asking reconsideration of his application for a beverage license that was refused him last Monday night. After some discussion the council sustained its last week's decision, Aldermen Perry and Murray being the only ones to favor the granting of the license.

There was a good deal of discussion as to the beverage licensing generally in the city and Ald. Rochester in opposing the granting of the particular license in point stated that there were 19 bars in the city now, whereas under the old licensing system there were but seven. Moreover the present system was getting right back to the old tavern days when there were saloons all over the place. In this particular case it appeared that one man was trying to create a monopoly by getting three licenses in one building. An exorbitant rent of $300 a month was being charged McGee and with such conditions as these, honest business was being squeezed out by the beer business because the lessors were able to pay such high rents where it was impossible for an ordinary business man. Moreover, these people were just fly-by-nights—here today and gone tomorrow. They were no unit in the building up of the city. Alderman Perry supported the application on the ground of fairness but was in favor of some limitations on the business.

New Company.

Ed. Matson also appeared at the meeting asking for a license for the Royal Hotel which was granted. L. W. Patmore was present on behalf of the applicant and explained that a new company called the "R. H. Co.," of which Matson was the manager, had taken over the Royal Bar. It was a new concern and S. A. Corley, who was recently convicted under the B. C. Prohibition Act, had nothing to do with it other than being the landlord of the premises which were rented to the applicants at $175 per month. Matson, personally, promised the council that the taxi drivers would not be allowed to have a telephone there and an endeavor would be made to have them stop dumping drunk men around the premises.

TWO OF THE DREDGES BUSY AT M'NICHOLL

Tug Fearful took One across from Dry Dock Yesterday Afternoon

Two of the dredges brought to this city by Grant & McDonald, of Vancouver, are now busy digging across the harbor at McNicholl Creek for bottom material for the new Grand Trunk wharf, the last of the three having been towed over from the dry dock by the tug Fearful yesterday afternoon. This will keep the Fearful almost constantly busy bringing the gravel across the Bay, and the work is speeding up. The first dredge was brought to the dock this afternoon for repairs.

The dredges are moored to dolphins and new piles that have been put in and there is also a houseboat which provides a mess house and sleeping quarters for the men employed. Some of the employees do not come across the harbor at all.
