

"Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away"

Navy League—What—Another Campaign?

We think we hear your exclamation. You want to forget the war and all its aftermath. We are with you in your desire to forget—but we must not, in forgetfulness, bury the solemn obligations undertaken in the days of sacrifice.

Canadians have bounden duties to those who must bear a burden until the "graves are opened and the sea gives up its dead"—who must forever carry the memory of sons and husbands and fathers who went down to the sea in ships and never returned.

Navy League—What—Another Campaign?

Yes, another campaign. A campaign from which the Navy League does not flinch; but on the contrary is proud to bring before the people—because it is the people's trustee.

The obligation to provide for our merchant sailors' dependents was undertaken by the people during the war, and must be maintained by them, until the need for it is no more.

After this year, however, the League expects to cease asking for funds for the relief of the Canadian dependents of Merchant Sailors who were killed on active service. With the Trust Funds now in hand, together with the sum set aside in the Budget, to be raised by public subscription this week, it should be possible to establish an endowment, the income from which will be sufficient to provide these dependents with a pension equal to that granted to the dependents of Naval men killed on active service.

As many of these dependents are young children, the endowment must continue for a number of years, until the children become self-supporting.

Navy League—What—Another Campaign?

Yes, another campaign. Is it nothing to you? Maybe not; but there are wives and mothers and children praying anxiously this week, knowing that upon the results of the campaign must depend their sustenance for many years.

Navy League—What—Another Campaign?

Yes, another campaign. The people accepted this responsibility during the war. The people must live up to it now. Give generously when you are called upon.

H. Pattinson and Captain Formby, of Pattinson & Ling, Ltd., returned on Saturday evening by the Venture from a week's trip up the Naas River as far as Aiyansh, visiting as well as Gittakdamiks and Kincolith. The weather is getting very cold and there was plenty of snow. Grouse hunting, they report, is of the best in that country.

Among the passengers passing through town on the Venture on Saturday evening were P. F. Sheehan and J. Chambers who have been timber cruising in the Naas country. They travelled by foot from Terrace up the Kitsumkumal River to the Naas slope and then to Aiyansh and were a month in the wilds. Mr. Sheehan belongs to the Vancouver timber firm, Sheehan & McLarty.
