HOW CONTROL LIOUOR TRADE

Government Helpless in Many Respects when Dealing with this Business

Here is a definite analysis of that Government Control can and annot do:

ON THE NEGATIVE SIDE

(1) It cannot control ownership. The vested interests will wn and control prices.

(2) It cannot control importa-This is a federal matter and the B. C. Government has no word to say except the will of the people call for it.

(3) It cannot control manufacture. This also is a federal matter and the provincial government cannot interfere.

(4) It cannot control bootlegging. If the police find it hard today to stop bootlegging it will be harder to discover whether a man is drunk on Government, imported or home-made whiskey.

(5) It cannot control the worst kind of vice behind locked doors. which liquor in the home means. It must not be drunk in the place of sale, but where governmental control is at a minimum-out of

ON THE POSITIVE SIDE

(1) It can control sale to the extent that anyone who is, or appears to be, of the age of 21 can have a permit-to buy as much as such a one desires.

(2) It can control quality of liquor and this is the only control it has. But with the increased deportunity for bootlegging that will be created, this control does not stand for much. The bootlegger is not in the business to make bad whiskey; what he is after is easy money.

(3) The amount of control is so limited that the Government has not been willing to state its platform. The mere, abstraction termed "Government Sale and Control" shows the paucity of possible control.

(4) Government Control is control of the Government by brewer. distiller and vested interests.

THAT prohibitionists would rid the world of snakes, but moderationists prefer a few rattlers, two or three cobras and a boa constrictor in the neighborhood.

THAT

Mary had a little bottle, She loved it all too well. She voted moderation And now she's gone to-speed artists.

THAT the railway officials hurried away on Saturday in order to escape from anyone who might again mention fish cars.

THAT the first broadside was launched when a Daily News man met them at 8 a.m., and the last was just before they left. In the meantime most of the talk they heard here was of fish cars.

THAT if they do not give us fish cars after this, it is to be hoped that all the officials will develop scales and never get rid of them until they descend into W the burning flery furnace whither they are bound.

THAT it is common to hear the expression "the blood is the life." but with Prince Rupert fish cars mean life while lack of them recessors encourage encour
