SMITHERS

Miss Nina M. Johnson, of Vancouver, was married to Thomas L. Stafford, of the G.T.P. staff, last Thursday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gray. Rev. J. Evans officiated and only immediate friends of the couple were present at the ceremony.

Charles Barrett has had an excellent crop this year, among which is 200 sacks of timothy seed.

Gower Rideout has been appointed scoutmaster in Smithers in succession to Rev. W. S. A. Larter who left the town recently.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Forman, of Telkwa, at the Smithers Hospital last Tuesday.

There are fourteen pupils in the Smithers entrance class this year and overcrowding is general.

Rev. Frank V. Abbott, of Grande Prairie, is to succeed Rev. W. S. A. Larter as rector here. Together with Mrs. Abbott he will arrive here in a short time. The arrival of a baby daughter causes the delay in arrival.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 21.—Premier Oliver had a conference this morning with Attorney-General Farris, Hon. J. D. McLean and Hon. J. H. King regarding the referendum vote and the preparation of the necessary bill for government control and sale.

The Premier said he had anticipated a majority for prohibition but the government was prepared to submit for the consideration of the Legislature a bill to give effect to the will of the people. He did not, however, interpret the vote as authorization of a return to the bar or the saloon.
