EARLY CLOSING BYLAW CHANGED

City Stores Close 6 O'clock After November 15—Special Late Hours Fair Week.

At last night's meeting of the city council a new bylaw regulating the closing of city stores was put through the various stages and passed. The bylaw follows a petition submitted by 69 out of 79 city merchants and its passing was compulsory to the council as the petition represented more than the necessary 75 per cent. of the city merchants.

Under the new ruling stores shall, after November 15, close at 6 o'clock on the ordinary week evenings, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. This, and a provision for the remaining of stores open till 10 o'clock on the nights of fair week each year, mark the only changes from the bylaw which is, at the present time, in effect. Stores shall remain open till 10 o'clock on Saturdays and the nights before holidays as before and for the ten days before Christmas can stay open as late as desired. Special note was made in the bylaw that this shall not interfere with the provincial Half Holiday Act.

ALDERMAN McLENNAN COMMENDS THE PRESS

The item in yesterday's News regarding the protest in regard to the apparent ignoring of Prince Rupert in a C. N. R. timetable was the subject of brief discussion at last night's council meeting having been brought up by Ald. Kerr. "I have not seen the timetable in question," said Ald. McLennan, "but I commend the press in keeping hammering at the question. In time the C. N. R. officials will be forced to recognize the importance of the district tributary to Prince Rupert whether they want to or not."

TWO SUICIDES IN VANCOUVER

Robert Townley and A. H. Morton Both End Own Lives

VANCOUVER, Oct. 25.—Robert Townley, married, declared his intention of suiciding on Saturday night. He drank carbolic acid and was found dead. He left a note asking that his mother be called. He had been drinking heavily and was out of work.

A. H. Morton, 7084 Silla Court, was found dead in a hotel here with a stick of cyanide in his teeth. He was a well known city broker. Mrs. Morton notified the police that her husband left the apartment, taking a suitcase and saying he was going to Victoria to end his life.

FINE SMOKER LAST NIGHT

Three-Round Boxing Bout, Singing and Other Features at Sons of Canada Concert.

There was a large turnout and a good program at the Sons of Canada smoker last evening in the Empress Theatre. The variety entertainment included three 3-round boxing bouts between local boys, all of which were well contested. The most important of these was between Red Davidson and Roy of the dry dock. The other bouts were flyweights.

Billy Barton gave an exhibition of sparring. He is a welter-weight of some ability and it is possible that a match may be arranged here between him and some local boy. He comes from Edmonton.

A club swinging exhibition by Fred Stephens and Alex. Rix was much appreciated and Bert McEvoy gave a nice exhibition of step dancing. A punching bag exhibition was enjoyed and songs were given by J. Y. Fraser, Eddie Craggs, George Waddell, H. Patkinson and C. B. Formby.

W. E. Thompson made an able chairman and Roy Barnes refereed the boxing bouts.
