"MIRACLE OF LOVE" AT EMPRESS TONIGHT

Lucy Cotton, who plays the role of the heroine in "The Miracle of Love," at the Empress tonight, has leaped into high favor recently through her fine work on the New York stage. A pretty Texas girl with all the charm of the Sunny South in her eyes, she started her dramatic career in the chorus of "The Quaker Girl" when it was playing in the metropolis. Recognizing that the girl had considerable dramatic talent and only needed experience, the manager made her second understudy to the star. In the last week of the run, a series of accidents placed Miss Cotton in the leading part and she scored a success that led New York critics to proclaim that a new star had been discovered.

WILL HERBS KEEP US HEALTHY—TESTS PROVE IT

Beyond all comparison with drug or alcoholic remedies, the curing powers of natural herb juices have done the utmost good to the human race. Most ailments to which people are subject can be traced to stomach disorders, and where impurity of blood exists it is due to imperfect nourishment given the blood through lack of proper digestion of the food received by the stomach.

The now successful method of feeding the blood in a perfectly natural and harmless way through the action of the stomach is the outcome of long investigation into the curing properties of herb juices; and results obtained from the formula of a great Scotch herbalist are today causing intense public interest.

This pure composition of juices extracted from herbs is now being sold at most drug stores throughout the Province in the form of Wonder Health Restorer. Testimonials reach the distributors daily from people who owe to this marvellous remedy relief from the most widely varied diseases.

Wonder Health Restorer acts on the blood through the digestive action of the stomach and reaches the organ of complaint through the blood. Thus Rheumatism, Stomach Disorders, Kidney Troubles and kindred diseases are afforded permanent relief; and in the case of diseases of the air passages, lung and bronchial, the work done by Wonder Health Restorer is marvellous. Your druggist has a descriptive booklet in which the health properties of natural herb juices contained in Wonder Health Restorer are described.

Wonder Health Restorer may be obtained in Prince Rupert by the Prince Rupert Drug Co. and at most drug stores throughout the Province; or send direct to the distributors, W. Y. McCarter-Burr Co., Ltd., 1045 Dominion Bldg., Vancouver, B.C.
