BRINGING UP FATHER

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

z THAT the question whether the Canadian National employees are civil servants is being discussed in the east. They certainly are in Prince Rupert.

THAT it is said no cigar factory could operate successfully in Prince Rupert because there are no autumn leaves here.

THAT Luke says the married man who claims he is boss in his home will lie about other things too if he gets the chance.

THAT the man who knocks his own town is usually the man that decent people would like to knock in the head.

THAT it is difficult to keep from laughing at the manner in which some people squirm.

THAT electioneering is all right, but it should be done honestly.

THAT the man with the Bowser sack is said to be in town. Now for the "successful businessman" to empty it.

THAT one of the things that won't get you anywhere is believing all that some of the politicians tell you.

THAT for many people it is now too late to get their names on the voters' list.

THAT they will be annoyed at themselves when they find they have no vote at the civic election in January.

THAT the taggers will get you if you don't watch out.

THAT between the woes of the Irish, the woes of the workingman, the woes of the businessman, the woes of the fishermen, the woes of the prohibitionists, the woes of the taxpayers, and the woes of the perennially dry, woe is me that I should be alive.

BOYS ROBBED STORE AT THE SHIPYARD

Two Lads, 16 and 11, were Apprehended by Warden Bailey and Tried Today.

Stephen Wintonick, aged 16, a lad who has already spent some years in industrial school, was this morning committed for trial by Magistrate McMorde charged with breaking into the store of S. G. Moore at the dry dock on Tuesday night. With him was another lad of very tender years whose case was heard in camera.

The story goes that on the night in question the two boys were passing the store and Wintonick suggested going in. The younger lad went through a window and emerged with some $27. This the two boys divided at Cow Bay. Neither have been at home recently, having been encamped in the old ambulance at Market Place, their dwelling having been discovered this morning by Warden Bailey. Both boys admit the robbery.
