PRIBILOF SEAL HERD GREATEST EVER KNOWN

The season just closed on the Pribilof Islands was marked by the advent of the greatest seal herd ever seen in that district, according to advices received today in Juneau. The census of the herd this year shows a total of 1,500,000 seals on the islands, the largest number known since the government took charge of the seal industry.

The skins of the animals killed during the season are still on the islands. They probably will be brought out on the relief ship Saturn which is now en route there with supplies for the native population.

AN ADDRESS TO LOCAL TEACHERS

Miss McLennan of High School Urges Formation of Parent Teachers' Association.

At a meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association a very interesting paper was read by Miss McLennan of the High School staff in which she dealt with the advantages which arise from the work of Parent-Teachers' Associations.

It was pointed out that a better understanding of the needs and possibilities of the child is always realized when the child's parents and the teacher meet together and discuss problems of common interest to both.

Reforms of all kinds are more readily secured when endorsed by parent ratepayers.

Co-operation of Parents

Some suggestions were made whereby the sympathetic co-operation on the part of parents could give practical aid to teachers, for instance:

(1) By ensuring their children sufficient sleep and sending them to school physically and mentally fit.

(2) By promoting regular and punctual attendance.

(3) By providing a quiet and regular study hour for home work.

(4) And by never criticizing the teacher before the children.

Points were also brought forward to show why these parent-teachers' associations should appeal strongly to parents.

These meetings provide a means of education for parents along the lines of child nurture and child psychology and their programmes make for higher home ideals and lead to united effort toward better citizenship.

They provide the best and most logical medium of communication between parent, teacher and school board.

Results in Vancouver.

Some results of parent-teacher work which have already been achieved, particularly in Vancouver, were then outlined.

Good libraries have been established. Good pictures and pianos have been purchased. School grounds have been beautified. Prizes have been awarded for sports, days and playground equipment secured. Sanitary and ventilating conditions have been improved. Campaigns for kindergarten have been instituted and have met with good success.

These results being possible, it was said to be incumbent on teachers to encourage the formation of these associations and to work ardently for their success.

BIG MASQUERADE DANCE AT STEWART

Effect Was One of Kaleidoscopic Beauty, Says Portland Canal News.

The masquerade at the Stewart Hotel Tuesday night will go down in the history of the camp as an affair equal in costume effect, music and merriment to anything seen in places where make-up material is more easily obtainable, says the Portland Canal News. But with great care and detail with materials obtainable at hand an effect of kaleidoscopic beauty and gorgeous and grotesque costume was produced.

The characters for the most part were carried out and the judges, Howard Campbell and Bob Stewart, had a difficult task in making awards.

Prizes for the fair sex went to Miss Kate Ryan, costumed as a "baby doll," Mrs. Knipple as a Jap girl won for fancy dress, and Mrs. Comer as Dutch cleanser, for the best sustained character.

Among the men Reggie Macfarlane outdid them all emblematic as a seasoned veteran of the Hyder High Dive club. Fancy dress male character was won by Dr. Davis as a pulchritudinous dandy of Paris. Sustained character prize went to Owey McFadden as a lie-man from the far north in a fur parka.

Notable features of the evening were the terpsichorean specialty by J. H. Gauld and S. G. Lawrence which was done with rare grace, the orchestra, Mrs. Barron's cakes, Bill Ross and Pat Daly.
