BRINGING UP FATHER

THE WHITE HEATHER AT THE WESTHOLME

Maurice Tournour Produces Some Thrilling Scenes in Tale of the Sea.

Maurice Tournour has a penchant for the sea. In "The White Heather" and "The Life Line" he demonstrates his unusual ability to produce thrilling scenes of the ocean in its varying mood on the screen. Now he has taken one of the most famous stories of all times, Joseph Conrad's "Victory," and used it as the basis of a motion picture that portrays in vivid detail the tale of love, adventure, and revenge in the South Sea Islands. The picture will be shown tonight at the Westholme Theatre.

MARRIED IN HASTE AT EMPRESS TONIGHT

"Married in Haste" at the Empress tonight is said to be a fast, snappy comedy-drama. It deals with a young spendthrift who is forced to make good in business because of the scheming of his young wife to keep his own money away from him until he has done so. He does make good finally; but the road that he and his bride travel meanwhile is beset by many obstacles—most of them laughable. In their poverty they are mistaken for crooks; but his wife, always with her eye on the main chance, helps hubby into a position in which he does something beside spending money.

SHEET AND PILLOW CASE DANCE HELD AT ALICE ARM FRIDAY

A pleasant sheet and pillow case dance was held in the hotel at Alice Arm on Friday night. Music was provided by Victor Hansen and Mrs. D. S. Cameron and the committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Al. Falconer, Miss Nettie Hogberg and V. Hansen. Refreshments were served and the most of the dancers in town turned out.

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

THAT drink to me only with hazy eyes will become more popular on the prairies after the fateful order in council is passed.

THAT it sometimes is a question which is the easier to collect money from, those who have it or those who have none.

THAT a man who reads the Man in the Moon column every day discovered that some jokelet was piffled. If he would look again he might find two jokes lifted hocus polus. It is just a little way they have in the moon.

THAT one reader says he never noticed a joke in this column yet. Poor fellow. He must be Dutch.

THAT all politicians should pray "Have mercy upon them miserable sinners," referring of course to those who vote the wrong way.

THAT soon there will be a nip in the air and later there will be a nip in the bottle, says the man who has been more or less dry for the last two years.

THAT someone took a snort down the street the other day. It was only an old express horse that had outlived its usefulness.

THAT there will be no need to import airplanes, at the present rate at which fish is aviating.

THAT have you seen the Catholic kitten?

THAT it is all right for a kitten to be kittenish but not for a girl.

THAT the Catholic kitten is a kittenish kitten.

THAT already there are something like two thousand people who want that kitten.

THAT they do not care about its religion but they like its youth and beauty.

THAT youth and beauty is usually more powerful than religion, especially when it is kittenish beauty.

THAT two chances at least for the Man in the Moon on the aristocratic kitten with the untainted lineage, without even a bar sinister on its scutechon.

THAT the bar sinister is the place where they sell beer. Also it is something else.

THAT all the best families have a bar sinister on their scutechons. Possibly the Man in the Moon has but he does not know what a Scutechon is.

THAT to return to kittens, why is a kitten?

AT a kitten is quite a different creature from a cat.

THAT if you do not believe it, call your lady friend a kitten and then later call her a cat. Note the different effects.

THAT has nothing to do with the Catholic kitten which is a long furred little aristocrat and all the girls say it is just too sweet for anything.
