Choosing Candidates For the Election.

Everywhere throughout the province the Liberals are nominating strong candidates and there is little doubt but they will win and the Oliver Government be returned to power.

The name of Farmer John Oliver is still one to conjure with. In throwing in allegiance with a local candidate it is well to consider, is that candidate ready to support the best premier British Columbia has ever had?

Oliver has not lavished money on the constituencies. He did not have it to lavish. He had nothing left him to commence with but a burden of debt.

Nothing to Hope From Bowser Scheme.

At the meeting of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association Wednesday night W. E. Williams drew attention to a pledge made by W. J. Bowser that if he became premier he would jackpot a large portion of the taxes and allot it to the different districts on the basis of population.

The same men who are backing Mr. Bowser and his policy are the ones who are saying Prince Rupert has not had proper support from the Liberal administration.

No Political Divisions Over Vital Matters.

It was good to see members of all political parties uniting Monday at the Board of Trade rooms in an effort to deal with the shipyard troubles. There was no question of party or politics.

Prince Rupert to Dock Here.

The Prince Rupert is to be docked here when she comes off the rocks at Swanson Bay. The first intention seems to have been to take her south but the activity of Col. Beck backed by the Board of Trade has been instrumental in securing the docking of the vessel here.

Don't Take Chances

Even trifling injuries, unless properly treated, are likely to start festering and poisoned sores. Keep Zam-Buk always handy. It heals like magic in cuts, burns, and scalds.

IN PROBATE.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA. IN THE MATTER OF THE ADMINISTRATION ACT — and — IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ERNEST FRANK GINGRAS, DECEASED; INTERSTATE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN of an order made by His Honour F. McE. Young in the above matter on the 29th day of September, A. D. 1920, as follows: IT IS ORDERED that the said John H. McMillen shall be allowed to swear to the death of the said Ernest Frank Gingras, deceased, on the thirtieth day of April, 1920, after the expiration of one month from the date of the first publication of notice of this order, unless in the meantime proof is furnished to the Registrar of this Court at Prince Rupert, B. C., that the said deceased, Ernest Frank Gingras, was alive subsequently to the said thirtieth day of April, 1920.

DUAL VOICE MAY BE SPIRIT

Man from Mr. Collier's Home Town Sings Tenor and Bass Together

J. W. Collier of this city has received a number of newspaper clippings from his old home town of Leigh, Lancashire, England, telling of the man, Edgar A. Dickenson, who sings with a double voice, taking both the tenor and bass parts at one time.

The discovery of his voice was accidental. Dickenson was following his trade of window cleaning and was singing at his work when a professor of music passed by. Hearing the odd voice, the professor stopped and listened and then questioned the man and told him what a wonderful voice he had.

TRY TO PURCHASE RAILWAY HOTEL SITE

VICTORIA, Nov. 5.—Negotiations have been started by an American hotel syndicate desiring to acquire part of the block bounded by Government, Belleville, Douglas and Elliott Streets for the site of a fine tourist hotel.

Now that the Grand Trunk has been taken over by the Dominion Government it is considered unlikely that it would go ahead with new hotel schemes, although the property has since been held by the company. The site which the Grand Trunk Pacific acquired here, and which the American hotel syndicate is seeking, overlooks the Parliament Buildings and the Empress Hotel and its gardens.
