BRINGING UP FATHER

BAZAAR RESULT MOST PLEASING

Catholic Ladies' Efforts on Behalf of Annunciation School are Crowned with Success.

WINNERS OF RAFFLES ANNOUNCED AT DANCE

Many months of faithful and energetic preparation on the part of the ladies of the Catholic Church was crowned with success at the bazaar in aid of the Annunciation School which closed last night. Although exact financial results were not made known it is assured that the success of the affair has surpassed last year by a good margin and all those in charge are very pleased.

All the booths did a rushing business both days of the fair and the raffles were big money-makers. Returns were large and expenses small as almost everything in the place was donated. Besides being a financial success the affair also was enjoyable socially. Father McGrath, who was on hand all the time, was very appreciative of the unselfish help extended by all.

Concert and Dance.
Yesterday afternoon a pleasing little program was rendered by the children of the Annunciation School and all those who heard it remarked on the fine training in singing, music and dancing that the children are receiving under the guidance of the sisters at the convent.

Last evening the dance proved a great success and there was a big crowd present. Music was provided by Gray's Orchestra and buffet refreshments were served from the tea counter.

HIGH SCHOOL MATTERS WILL BE TAKEN UP AT NEXT BOARD MEETING

High school matters were the subject of discussion at the school board meeting last night. Mrs. Kirkpatrick states that children were leaving the high school to go to the Catholic school and complaints had also been laid that children being admitted from the public school to the high school were, in some cases, not qualified for such promotion.

Principal Brady and complaining parents are to be asked to attend the next meeting of the board.
