BRITISH TRIBUTE IS RENDERED TO DEAD HEROES POLITICAL SURVEY SHOWS CHANGE UNLIKELY IN THE POLITICAL SITUATION

Political Survey Shows No Change In the Province

VICTORIA, November 12.—A careful survey of the political field following the nominations seems to indicate that the Provincial Government will get a majority, quite as large, if not larger, than it had before dissolving the House. In Vancouver W. J. Bowser is expected to be re-elected but whether the opposition will get another member there is very doubtful. Four Liberals are expected to be elected here, where there are nineteen candidates in the field. A number of independents will draw about equally from the old parties. Dr. Ernest Hall is running as an independent Liberal but he gets a good Conservative support, especially from prohibitionists. Madama may make a strong run and there is little possibility of his election, as he has been turned down by a good many of the voters.

KERGIN SPEAKS AT ROSS MEETING

Large Crowd Out to Hear Issues Discussed at Anyox Wednesday Night.

PEOPLE SEEM WITH LIBERAL CANDIDATE

ANYOX, Nov. 12.—A meeting was held here on Wednesday evening called by W. C. Ross for the purpose of giving him an opportunity of explaining the issues from a Conservative point of view. There was a large attendance and the address of the candidate was listened to with attention. He spoke well.

The meeting did not get enthusiastic, however, until Bert Kergin, the Liberal candidate, who had been invited to address the meeting, came forward. Kergin was given a splendid reception and made an excellent impression. He told of the good work the Government had done and what they would do in the future and undoubtedly the crowd was with him. Kergin has gone to Alice Arm where he is meeting the miners and prospectors. Everywhere he is receiving great encouragement and his election seems likely.

MEN'S CLOTHING ON TOBOGGAN

Prices at Chicago Coming Down Rapidly and the Public Not Buying.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Men's clothing for immediate delivery were offered buyers today at prices ten to fifty per cent below present wholesale prices. Goods for spring and summer delivery were shown at prices 10 to 33 1-3 per cent under those of a year ago, and men's shirts and similar articles were shown at greatly reduced prices at the opening of the thirteenth semi-annual buying convention of the United National Clothiers. The convention is being attended by retail clothing dealers from seventeen middle western and western states, and has taken the form of a huge display of made-up garments.

"The public is not buying; the manufacturers and dealers are overstocked," said W. L. Mohr, treasurer and general manager of the association, today. "The price must come down. We have passed the peak in high prices of wearing apparel. Men's clothing will be considerably cheaper from now on; the retailer can afford to sell at less for his costs are becoming lower."

"Here are some men's shirts," he said, indicating an exhibition, "which wholesaled at $45.00 a dozen a few months ago. Now they are offered at $16.50 a dozen. Here are 2,000 suits offered at $16.50, suits that ordinarily wholesaled at $45.50. The age of extravagance has passed, and rather than let the goods rot on the shelves, the manufacturers are getting what they can out of them."

Thousands Pay Tribute To Britain's Dead Heroes

Workmen March Past Whitehall Memorial Four Abreast during Early Hours of Morning; No Cessation of Visits

LONDON, November 12.—There has been scarcely any cessation since yesterday of the tramp of pilgrims to the monument to Britain's dead at Whitehall. During the early hours so many workers were anxious to pay tribute that the police marched them four abreast past the memorial.

This silent tribute has been one of the features of Armistice Day and the day following. It has been a wonderful testimony of devotion.

SITUATION IN SHIPYARD IS UNCHANGED

Yarrows Officials Here to Take Carruthers South to Esquimalt

Up to noon today no word had been received from any of the principals in connection with the shipyard affairs. Col. Peck and Mr. Pillsbury were due at Winnipeg yesterday evening to take the matter up first with the Canadian National officials at that centre before proceeding to Ottawa.

The trawler James Carruthers, which was docked here for survey, is being sent south to Esquimalt, owing to the local dock being out of commission. Two representatives of Yarrows, Ltd., are in the city and the tug Clayburn is on the way north to fetch the vessel.

This morning the president of the Board of Trade received the following wire from the minister of marine:

"The present drydock situation is that the department is awaiting the consent of the guarantee company to advance money to pay wages due. The department is advised that a meeting of the underwriters was held in New York yesterday."

COAST GUARD VESSEL IS TO BE STATIONED IN SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA

That at least one vessel of the U.S. Coast Guard Service will be stationed at some Southeastern Alaska port, probably Juneau, on permanent duty, is indicated by a letter just received by J. W. Bell, Clerk of the District Court, from A. J. Henderson, Acting Commandant of the Coast Guard, at Washington, D.C., says the Juneau Empire. According to the letter the vessel will take up its station and duties as soon as the requisite personnel is available.

Commandant Henderson acknowledges receipt of the recommendation of the last Federal Grand Jury in the District Court for a ship to be assigned to Southeastern Alaska waters for assisting vessels in distress and for other purposes. He states that it is the purpose of the Coast Guard to assign a vessel to Alaskan waters as soon as possible.

Five Carloads Fish Sold This Morning

Bids at Exchange Today Run Price up almost to High Record Mark

Five carloads of halibut arriving in port in the last day or so sold this morning at the Fish Exchange for high prices, approaching close to the high record mark. In all there was 134,000 lbs. of fish marketed and as there is plenty of cars for present needs the market condition was in just the right condition for high prices to prevail. Today the fish is being packed in the refrigerator cars for shipment east. The Pacific Sea Products Association, Atlin Fisheries, Booth Canadian Fisheries and Royal Fish Co. were the big bidders and the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company did not take any fish today.

Following are the arrivals, catches and sales listed at the Fish Exchange at 2 o'clock:

Omaney, 60,000 pounds, sold to the Pacific Sea Products Association at 18.6c and 8c.

Nidaros, 11,000 pounds; Saturn, 3,500 pounds; Lovera, 2,500 pounds; Imperieuse, 5,000 pounds and St. Eloi, 500 pounds, sold to the Atlin Fisheries at 22c and 8c.

Emblem, 3,500 pounds; Lincoln, 5,000 pounds; W. & F., 6,000 pounds; Pioneer, 5,000 pounds, and Fanny F., 5,000 pounds, sold to the Booth Canadian Fisheries at 22.5c and 8c.

Pair of Jacks sold 25,000 pounds to the Royal Fish Co. at 22.5c and 8c.

NO CHANGE IN LINEUP OF CANDIDATES

Formby Still in Field in Spite of Mr. Newton's Overtures.

There is no change in the lineup of candidates in the election campaign. Some of Capt. Formby's backers announce that he has not withdrawn, he had attended no joint meeting and there was no intention of withdrawing, and he would go before the electors on December 1.

It seems that there has been a movement with the idea of eliminating Mr. Newton. This is clearly shown in the announcement made by Mr. Newton yesterday in which he said:

"By Capt. Formby and Newton both remaining in the field, there is a likelihood of Hon. Mr. Pattullo's election. To avoid this, will Capt. Formby by noon tomorrow agree to a mass meeting of the opponents of the Government and leave it up to the choice of said meeting to decide which shall be the candidate?"

It is understood that no answer has been sent to this overture, although rumor has it that since making the offer Mr. Newton has stiffened his neck, plucked out the white feather, and decided to go through with it to the bitter end and try to defeat the hated Government candidate alone. If this is true it is a mistake. All the sources of information indicate that he has not a ghost of a chance of election and it would be better to withdraw.
