The Man in the Moon
SAYS:-

THAT on Sunday night very late all sorts of noises were heard issuing from the "People's Independent Candidate's" committee room. Passers by stopped to listen and they soon discovered it was the People's Independent candidate himself practising his campaign speech in readiness for the crowded meetings he is to get at Cedarvale and Shames.

THAT there should be growing accounts pretty soon of the crowd who flocked to hear the Conservative candidate at Ocean Falls and Swanson Bay. They will be nothing, however, to the stories that will come from up the line in regard to the enthusiasm of the electors of Cedarvale and other points over the candidature of the People's Independent candidate.

THAT Pattullo will be elected and there will be three "also rans."

THAT there will be the defeated O. B. U. candidate, the defeated Conservative candidate and the defeated People's Independent candidate, the last-mentioned being self chosen.

THAT if the people were foolish enough to elect Newton to the Legislature, he would take his little hammer to Victoria and commence to knock there and would be the laughing stock of the capital.

THAT the motto of the People's Independent candidate is "For heaven's sake elect me to something."

MRS. BAIRD MAKES A GOOD IMPRESSION IN VANCOUVER CONCERT

VANCOUVER, Nov. 16.—Singing at a concert here at the week-end Mrs. Baird, who is to visit Prince Rupert this week, was unusually fine. One of the local press notices said: Mrs. Baird's rendering of the well known Gounod number "O Divine Redeemer" was marked by sincerity, her fine rich contralto being used with great expressiveness in the pleading lines of this prayer set to music. "Like as a Heart Desireth" by Allitsen was also beautifully sung, the sacred charm of the music and words being enhanced two-fold by the artistic manner in which they were interpreted.
