PROSPECTS FOR EMPLOYMENT

Number of Public Works will Help Ease Situation Says Officer

The local Labor Bureau reports that the conditions of employment are not very encouraging here just now. Mr. Campbell says, however, that as soon as the contractors for the dock begin pile driving they will employ more men and the work on the new Government buildings here and the extension of the provincial wharf, all of which are to proceed immediately, will provide a good deal of employment, and if the shipyard starts up again before the end of the year will keep things busy.

The War Veterans have wired to Col. Peck urging him to try to get work started on the roundhouses, as it is reported the plans are ready. This would help out in the matter of employment. No reply has yet been received to this message.

OLD FRENCH-CANADIAN CHANSONS COLLECTED

Quaint and Attractive Volume Revives Melodies of Colonist Times

From picturesque Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, has come a book with the title "Chansons of Old French Canada," to intrigue those who delight in resuscitations of music left forgotten in the byways of other centuries. It is a quaint and attractively printed volume, of paper covers. The title page explains that accompaniments are by Margaret Gascoigne, script by James Kennedy and illustrations—with dashes of red supplementing black and white—by Ethel Seath. There is a preface by C. Marius Barbeau, who rejoices that "in the desert of American uniformity the ancient rural districts of Quebec form a quaint oasis where industrialism and cupidity have not yet withered all local color, and individual bias or charm. Leisure and gaiety have not altogether vanished. Singing and story-telling in the old style still are casually indulged in."

An interesting introduction it is and increases the interest with which the reader will turn to the songs of love, of story, of labor, and, of course, the canoeing songs for which the early French Canadians were so famous, which follow.

The copyright of the book is with the C.P.R.

NIGHT COUGH

You know it! It begins with a tickling, irritating sensation in your throat. You cough to clear the throat. In a moment—there it is again!

A minute's peace, then again you cough, and so on until you cough your throat sore, and by the time the cough is sufficiently allayed to permit you to sleep, you are thoroughly worn out. This kind of experience is particularly trying to old people.

Peps make this sort of thing quite unnecessary.

Put a Peps pastille on your tongue and allow it to slowly dissolve. Healing fumes are then liberated, which mingle with the breath and are carried to the remotest parts of the air passages and lungs, allaying the irritation and soothing the inflamed membranes, thus ending the cough and making sleep possible.

Peps are also best for bronchitis, laryngitis, asthma, sore throat and colds. Try Peps at our expense. Send this advertisement and 1c. stamp (for return postage), to Peps Co., Toronto, and receive FREE TRIAL PACKAGE. All dealers, 50c. box.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:—

THAT the difference between last night's Liberal rally and the Newton meeting the previous night was just the difference between success and failure.

* * *

THAT Pattullo will be the leader of the solid four for the north in the next Legislature.

* * *

THAT Liberalism is a live thing. It means progress with equal opportunity for all classes.

* * *

THAT if Newton is elected he will serve under W. J. Bowser.

* * *

THAT Bowser will be leader of the opposition in the next Legislature.

* * *

THAT if Burrough is elected he will be an Ishmaelite playing a lone hand or lining up with the opposition under Mr. Bowser.

* * *

THAT any way you figure it, the only chance of Prince Rupert getting anywhere is to return Pattullo, the man who will support Premier John Oliver who will continue to lead the Government.

* * *

THAT the big banner across the street finds it difficult to keep waving.

* * *

THAT the independent Newton candidate has this consolation. He will still have a chance to be a candidate at the mayoralty election in January.

* * *

THAT according to all accounts Terrace is going to do herself proud in helping to return the solid Liberal four to represent the north in the next Legislature.

* * *

THAT from Ocean Falls comes the ever-growing sound of Liberal victory.

* * *

THAT Prince Rupert is sore with Ocean Falls for having tried to foist T. Ross McKay on them. Take him back, Ocean Falls. He has tried all the parties here and none will accept him. Turn him loose in the bowling alley.

* * *

THAT it is good to hear Alex. Manson is a winner in Omineca.

* * *

THAT Kergin is sweeping the north and will make a real representative.

* * *

THAT Perry, away out in Prince George is the man to deliver the goods for that section of the country.

* * *

THAT Pattullo, Manson, Kergin and Perry are the big four who will fight for the rights of the north.
