

The Daily News

PRINCE RUPERT

Northern and Central British Columbia's Newspaper

TAXI TAXI

Phone 75

WE NEVER SLEEP

Prince Rupert Auto
707 Second Ave. - Prince Rupert

Local Dressed Beef

Our Own Slaughtering. Shipments of Live Stock now arriving every week direct from the stock raisers of the Bulkley Valley.

GEORGE J. FRIZZELL

Phone 10, 25, 185
Royal Market Fulton Market

VOL. XI. NO. 276.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1920.

Yesterday's Circulation 1719.

Street Sales 382.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

LORD GREY ADVISES BRITISH TO LEAVE IRELAND

W. J. BOWSER THROWN FROM AUTOMOBILE INTO MUD BUT NOT INJURED

Would Let Ireland Settle Own Affairs

Viscount Grey makes Notable Speech in British Parliament Advocating Withdrawal of All Forces from Emerald Isle

LONDON, November 25.—Viscount Grey, until recently ambassador to the United States and one of the most prominent of British statesmen, debating the Home Rule Bill in the House of Lords yesterday, made a notable appeal to the Government to withdraw all forces from Ireland and leave the country to find her own salvation.

The speech has created a sensation throughout Great Britain and is commented on in all the newspapers. It finds many backers and the hope is expressed in many quarters that the appeal will meet with a ready response.

Lord Grey has held many important positions in the British Government, most important of all being that of Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, which he held at the time of the outbreak of war with Germany. He used every effort to secure peace, but when he found it impossible, he entered the war with vigor. He still wields great influence in Great Britain.

BOWSER EVADES CHALLENGE OF DR. E. A. HALL

He Has Not Time to Meet Well Known Speaker at Victoria.

HANEY, Nov. 25.—W. J. Bowser refuses to meet Dr. Ernest Hall in Victoria. Speaking here regarding Dr. Hall's challenge on behalf of Premier Oliver to debate the political issues, said: "The challenge is merely cheap advertising. The premier had an opportunity of meeting me at the board of Trade luncheon in Vancouver on Friday, an event which has been cancelled. I have only an hour and a half left in the schedule for Victoria and need that to address the electors."

REPUBLIC TRUCK WILL HANDLE THE EXPRESS BUSINESS

Machine Being Painted and Lettered in Winnipeg—Service Starts Wednesday

The Canadian Express Co. and the Dominion Express Co. in inaugurating free express delivery on December 1 will use a Republic truck jointly. This truck is now in Winnipeg where it is being painted and lettered. It is expected that it will be here by next Wednesday and if not a temporary arrangement will be made to start the service.

Mr. Gillis, local Canadian Express Company agent, pointed out this morning that to facilitate delivery the street address of all consignees should be on the parcels in future.

DIRECT CABLE WITH GREAT BRITAIN FOR ALL CANADIAN NEWS

MONTREAL, Nov. 25.—The Canadian Press Ltd. shareholders yesterday decided to establish a direct cable service between Great Britain and Canada to obviate the passage of British news through American channels.

LOCAL CREDITORS HAVE INSTITUTED BANKRUPTCY CASE

Prince Rupert Creditors Want Statutory Meeting Here—Vancouver Representative Arrives.

A. H. Bain, representing the Vancouver Credit Men's Association and the Vancouver creditors of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Engineering Co., arrived yesterday on the Prince George from the south.

As yet there has been no appointment made of a receiver for the company although the Prince Rupert creditors have now taken bankruptcy proceedings through L. W. Palmore, counsel for the local people. Bankruptcy proceedings have also been instituted in Vancouver but it is understood that they have been opened improperly.

The Prince Rupert creditors are willing to co-operate with the Vancouver creditors providing the first statutory meeting of all the creditors, both Vancouver and Prince Rupert, is held here. If this first meeting is not held here then it is the intention of the Prince Rupert creditors to oppose action instituted in Vancouver.

Decision has not yet been made as to an agreement between the creditors on this point.

SOCIAL LAST NIGHT IN CATHOLIC HALL

Progressive Whist and Dancing Was Enjoyed by Large Number.

A well attended social was held last night in the Catholic Church hall, at which progressive whist was followed by refreshments and concluded with a dance. Those in charge were Mrs. McNulty, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. Nickerson, Mrs. Gratton and Mrs. A. D. Gillies. The affair was a great success.

INSURANCE SCHEME FOR THE DOMINION

Government to Follow Lead of Versailles Labor Charter.

OTTAWA, Nov. 25.—The Government at its next session will consider an insurance scheme for the Dominion. The proposal arises out of the labor charter at the Versailles treaty.

KETCHIKAN HOTEL HAS BEEN SOLD

Large Deal Consummated When J. B. Simpson Purchased Mission St. Property.

KETCHIKAN, Nov. 25.—The St. Francis Hotel property here has been sold to J. B. Simpson.

With it were purchased two pieces of adjoining property, making the largest deal ever put through in Ketchikan.

Mr. Simpson is an old timer of the north, having once resided at Dawson. He will convert the lower part of the building into a billiard parlor and the upstairs part will be used for hotel purposes.

HANGING TO TREE

Ellis Morris Roberts had Suffered Ill Health

SOUTH VANCOUVER, Nov. 25.—The body of Ellis Morris Roberts, 53 years of age, was found dead, hanging to a tree in his garden yesterday morning.

WELL KNOWN LIBERAL.

M. A. Macdonald, who, it is thought, will lead the polls in the election at Vancouver.

Newton Emissaries Tock Cold Feet at Port Simpson

Letter to the Editor of Daily News Shows How Facts are Falsified by Supporters of Independent Candidate

To the Editor.—According to your paper of yesterday, W. R. Love spoke at the Newton rally on Tuesday night in his committee rooms and told of the favorable reception he got at Port Simpson on Saturday night and that he thought the people were with Newton. This, Mr. Editor, is flagrant camouflage. Mr. Love knows a lot better than that. He told this yarn to the dozen people at the so-called rally, but it is not true. This is what happened:

W. R. Love and Herb Young went to Port Simpson on Saturday afternoon and arrangements were made for a meeting in the hall, the same place where Mr. Pattullo recently held a meeting. The two Prince Rupert heroes did not go far, however. They took cold feet after landing and refused to go to the meeting and John Flewin was sent to call the meeting off, which he did. The people who had gathered, being home very sore at not getting a chance to hear the representatives of the fireworks candidate.

I do not think, Mr. Editor, that Love and Young spoke to half a dozen voters at Port Simpson or that he urged the cause of Newton there. Flewin is a Conservative and he seems to have heard them off. At any rate the Port Simpson people have decided that as Newton and his valiant henchmen are not interested enough in the cause of the people's independent candidate to attend the meeting called in his behalf and would not even look them up and renigged and went home and thus falsified the position at the Newton "rally," they will vote for Pattullo, the man they know and who had the courtesy to address them and explain the issues of the day.

Believe me, sir, the Port Simpson people may be villagers but they are not fools.

DISAPPOINTED.

BOILERS ARE ORDERED FOR NEW C. P. R. SHIP

Contract for Vessel was Secured in Competition with Clyde Firms

VANCOUVER, Nov. 24.—The Vulcan Iron Works here has been awarded the contract for four Scotch marine boilers for the load being built by Wallace's to replace the Princess Sophia, the largest boat of its kind yet built on the coast.

The contract for the new craft was secured against the competition of American and Clyde firms.

OPPOSE MAYOR GALE.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 25.—Jack Woods, a longshoreman, announces that he will oppose the election of Mayor Gale at the city people may be villagers but they are not fools.

W. J. Bowsers Meets with Serious Accident But Happily Escapes Unhurt

Was on His Way to Meeting at Haney; Car Turned Somersault over 20 ft. Embankment and Covered Occupants with Mud

HANEY, B. C., November 25.—W. J. Bowser, after narrowly escaping death in an automobile mishap near here last night, capitalized the incident by putting all the blame on, what he called, "Oliver's beautiful roads." On his way from Mission to Haney in a car in which he and J. A. Calderwood, the local Conservative candidate, and four others were riding, ran over an embankment and fell a distance of twenty feet, turning a complete somersault and landing upside down. It was at first feared that the occupants of the car were either killed or seriously injured, but after a few minutes they managed to cut away the sides of the car and crawl out on the wreckage.

It was found that, although both Mr. Bowser and Mr. Calderwood were covered from head to heel with mud, they were unhurt and suffered only from shock. Commanding a passing Ford, the entire party of six piled into it and reached Haney about half an hour later, but in good spirits. The first thing to be done was to explain to the large audience waiting why they were late and were about 300 persons assembled and it was thought that things might get heated, but perfect order was maintained and the crowd and congratulations on getting safely out.

Mr. Kavanagh took opportunity to give his version of the "Terrace incident." At the close of the Terrace meeting it was suggested that the National Anthem be sung and Mr. Kavanagh said that he would not; it was a Socialist meeting and Socialists were opposed to royalty. Anybody else could who wanted to, though. Some one made a remark that he would have to sing it and he had said, "Like hell I will." Mr. Kavanagh said that only E. T. Kenny and his brother-in-law and sister-in-law sang the anthem and that everybody else got up and moved out.

"I have earned money at my trade," said Mr. Kavanagh, speaking of the press, "and for a brief period was paid for my services in the labor movement, but I never was a mental prostitute."

N. Booth was the chairman of the meeting last night and J. H. Burrough, labor nominee for the election, spoke briefly at the commencement of the meeting.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

LABOR ORATOR TELLS VERSION

Admits He Said "Like Hell" He Would Sing National Anthem—No Mental Prostitute

Jack Kavanagh was the speaker at a well attended meeting in the McIntyre Hall last evening. There were about 300 persons assembled and it was thought that things might get heated, but perfect order was maintained and the crowd and congratulations on getting safely out.

Mr. Kavanagh took opportunity to give his version of the "Terrace incident." At the close of the Terrace meeting it was suggested that the National Anthem be sung and Mr. Kavanagh said that he would not; it was a Socialist meeting and Socialists were opposed to royalty. Anybody else could who wanted to, though. Some one made a remark that he would have to sing it and he had said, "Like hell I will." Mr. Kavanagh said that only E. T. Kenny and his brother-in-law and sister-in-law sang the anthem and that everybody else got up and moved out.

"I have earned money at my trade," said Mr. Kavanagh, speaking of the press, "and for a brief period was paid for my services in the labor movement, but I never was a mental prostitute."

N. Booth was the chairman of the meeting last night and J. H. Burrough, labor nominee for the election, spoke briefly at the commencement of the meeting.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.

Col. Sclater was appointed commissioner January, 1919, after discovering the W. C. Findlay irregularities. Besides a good record in the government service and military he has had lengthy experience in shipping affairs. His resignation was practically coincident with pending change in the liquor control as voiced in the recent referendum.