Supt. Brankin Refutes Conservative Statement at Welfare Convention.

Mr. David Brankin, Superintendent of Neglected Children, in a short address at the evening session of the Child Welfare convention said that the present Mothers' Pensions legislation in British Columbia was the finest in existence. It was not true that no pensions had been paid out until October 1 on the eve of the election. Mr. Brankin stated.

"I have a letter in my pocket dated Sept. 11, thanking me for a cheque, and I have acknowledgements of pensions dating back to July," said the superintendent. and fonight I have signed a voucher for 637 pensions for November. If people knew of the relief the pensions have given to mothers they would regret that the act had not been passed long ago ... Vancouver Sun, November 18, 1920.

That until 1917, one year after the Oliver Government came into power, no material changes were made other Provinces of Canada have lifted their eyes with hope to British Columbia, as they see their ideas of just laws for their sex crystalizing and taking shape in the legislation of the Oliver Government as
