In the Letter Box

COMMISSIONER JONES REPLIES.
Editor Daily News:—
A little space in your paper would be appreciated by myself to answer Commissioner Hill's letter of yesterday.

It seems to me that Mr. Hill is trying to square himself with the electors in this city, over his resignation, by soft peddling the blame onto me, by these words: "Commissioner Jones' change of front."

All I ask the electors to do is to compare my dates and statements with Mr. Hill's letter of last night.

I do not know the exact date when the Catholic bazaar raffle tickets were issued, but on several occasions between September 18 and 22 people stopped me on the street and said "What about the Catholic raffle?"

On Thursday, Sept. 23, I went to Mayor McClymont about some other business and at the same time said: "I think we should see the chief about this bazaar raffle and instruct him to stop it."

Mayor McClymont said: "Yes, I agree with you and I'll speak to the chief myself about it."

The mayor went away on October 2, but on Friday October 1 I stopped him on Third Avenue and he said, "I've seen Chief Vickers about that matter."

I heard nothing further about his case until Mr. McNulty came to me on Monday, October 18, and said that Sergeant Adams had been up to the Bazaar Committee on October 15 or 16 to say the raffle was illegal and would have to be stopped.

After being assured by Mr. McNulty that this was the first notification that they had received I said: "Well, you were informed just two and a half weeks at least after the time I understood Chief Vickers had been instructed to stop your raffle. Under these circumstances I, as one commissioner, will not agree to prosecute you."

Now, Mr. Citizen, was I just or unjust in my decision?

In my own mind I'm sure there was a misunderstanding somewhere, but we all make mistakes and I'm not out to accuse anybody over such a paltry affair as this.

Mr. Hill's resignation and his letter remind me of that well known play—"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."

J. MYHILL-JONES,
Police Commissioner.

FIRST SYMPTOMS OF INFLUENZA

Disease Usually Starts off Just Like a Cold in the Head.

Don't neglect a cold in the head, however slight. It may be the forerunner of influenza. The first symptoms are almost identical—feverish condition—muscular pains, especially in back—soreness of throat—feeling of general depression.

As soon as these symptoms appear start taking Grip-Fix, which you can get at any drug store. It contains in capsule form just what your doctor might prescribe. In a single night it does the work with a cold and in 24 hours will even break up a grippie attack.

Grip-Fix contains no injurious drugs. It keeps the system open, relieves the soreness of muscles, allays the feverish condition. It is the ideal home preparation for colds.
