PATTULLO IS GIVEN GOOD RECEPTION

Speaks at Newton Meeting and Gets Much Applause for Rapid-Fire Address.

There was a large crowd gathered at the Westholme Theatre last night to greet the candidates who were speaking at that place and they gave a great ovation to Hon. T. D. Pattullo, in marked contrast to the feeble applause which was evoked by S. M. Newton, the people's independent candidate for legislative honors, in whose support the meeting was called.

C. O. Rowe presided and there were with him on the platform W. R. Love, D. McD. Hunter and A. W. Edge.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, who was present by invitation, was compelled to speak first and for twenty minutes he poured forth shot into the ranks of the enemy, dealing vigorously with local and provincial questions and evoking rounds of applause from the audience.

He was followed by S. M. Newton, who at considerable length spoke on the issues of the day as he saw them. He dealt with the coal wharf and pledged his word that if he were elected he would try to get one here. He also advocated the running of a boat service out of this port by the provincial government, landing and loading at this government wharf. Many other subjects were discussed at considerable length as the audience steadily dwindled, many being attracted by the dance at St. Andrew's hall. He concluded by replying to Mr. Pattullo's attack on him, saying that the people of Prince Rupert had known him a long time and he left it to them.

At the conclusion the national anthem was sung and those who were still present dispersed.

BRYANT COMPANY, LTD., REDUCE THEIR PRICES

Prices Lowered in Store to Correspond With Lower Prices at the Factory.

Bryant Company, Ltd., have been very busy these last few days marking down their stock on hand to correspond with the factory prices, which they believe will be still lower within the next three months than they have been for the past four years. As prices fall at the factory week by week, the prices on goods in the Bryant Company's store, whether bought at the higher prices or not, will be marked down from 20 to 30 per cent.

This gives the public the benefit of the immediate reduction without waiting until the high priced stocks are disposed of.

These are not sale prices, but the lower prices which now prevail. For detailed prices, see the Bryant Company's advertisement in the Daily News tomorrow.

Sport Briefs

The matching of Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier to battle for the heavyweight championship of the world is now history, but there is one point that has been overlooked by the sporting public. It is the fact that the World's Boxing Trust has been formed and hereafter will have its say in every great fight staged in the world and will dominate the fighting game. It is made up of Tex Rickard, chairman, William A. Brady, John Ringling, representing America, and Charles Cochran, representing England.

Tex Rickard is the one "Big One" on this trust and it is he who formed it, but Brady, Ringling and Cochran form a mighty "Big Three." Rickard is a master mind and a promoter of unlimited nerve, Brady is one of the ablest judges of pugilists in America, Ringling, originally a circus man, is out for a square deal, and Cochran, who got the cinch in an engagement with Carpentier, is as famous a sports promoter in England as Rickard is in America. Cochran has amassed a fortune out of sport and the theatrical business.

Horse owners are going to have a big winter at the Tia Juana and Havana races this year. Purses totalling $650,000 have been hung up for the 100 days meet and unrestricted betting will be in vogue. In Havana the betting is handled by bookmakers while in Tia Juana everything is wide open and every form of gambling will be allowed. Fortunes will be won and lost daily.

The Boston Americans hope to be on the championship map again in 1924, for they have Hugh Duffy back from the Toronto Internationals to manage them. Duffy is a "driver" and if anybody can put the Red Sox into championship class he can. He put the Torontos into second place in their league last season and has been watched from afar off, with the result that he was grabbed by President Frazee of the Boston. He is an old favorite in Boston and achieved fame as an outfielder with the Nationals from that city. He knows how to teach youngsters to bat and in that lies one hope of championship.

Jack Curley, the wrestling promoter, says that the wrestling fans in Canada want some big contests and he is going to try to satisfy them. All plans are not made, but this year promises to be a bigger one in wrestling than last. Joe Stecher will have to defend his title and there are some promising aspirants. Curley says that the greatest wrestlers in the world are from India and he is going to try to get some matches with them.

HELIGOLAND RESIDENTS

Appeal Sent to Britain Asking Preservation of Rights from Germany

LONDON, Nov. 29.—An appeal to the British nation has been received, signed by 48 inhabitants of Heligoland, stating that they desire the help of Britain in the preservation of the rights accorded to them under the Anglo-German Agreement of 1890. These rights, they say, have been practically all abolished by the German authorities. It is pointed out in the appeal that the agreement stipulated for certain rights to be preserved to Great Britain. If the agreement is annulled by the war, as the Germans assert, these rights are annulled also.
