NOME PAPER TELLS WHAT BLONDE KIND ESKIMO LOOKS LIKE

Captain Joe Bernard, whose exploits in the Far North have won him considerable fame, arrived recently in Nome on his schooner Teddy Bear. Bernard was accompanied by A. Anderson, another explorer, and Apuktwana, the first "blonde Eskimo" to reach the outside. The party has been exploring in the Arctic seas for four years.

Describing the "blonde Eskimo" the Nome Nugget says:

"In appearance he is little different from the Eskimo of this section. His home is in the bleak region along the Southern shores of Coronation Gulf. He is stout built, with a light copper colored skin, straight black hair and possesses sparkling dark brown eyes. The cut of his clothes is about the only thing by which he may be distinguished from the local Eskimo. Bernard says he is an average example of the males of the "blonde" tribe. Bernard, like other recent visitors to Coronation Gulf region, is in no degree inclined to endorse Stefansson's description of the alleged blondes and says while there are some of them who have reddish brown hair and light eyes, they are scarcely light enough to be considered blondes even by an extraordinary stretch of the imagination. Captain Bernard is figuring on taking the quaint savage to the outside world.

TIED HANDKERCHIEF TO WEATHERCOCK

A pupil at a "school" for steeplejacks at Godalming, England, climbed the leaden spire of the parish church at midnight and tied a khaki handkerchief to the weathercock, 170 ft. above the ground. He made the climb without apparatus and while wearing a trench coat. When he descended he was met at the foot of the tower by a policeman, who took him into custody, but the incident ended with an apology to the vicar and a promise by the master steeplejack to remove the handkerchief.

HEADACHES

Make Life Miserable

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles one can have, and it is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

Headaches seem to be habitual with many people; some are seldom, if ever, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbings, the intense pains, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed, the headaches will still continue to exist.

The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters keep the stomach, liver and bowels toned up is proof enough to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headaches.

Mrs. Harold Lantian, Owen Sound, Ont., writes: "My system was run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head, which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health, so I took another and am glad to say that it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to my friends, who were in a similar condition, and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

B. B. B. is put up only by the T. M. B. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Adv.
