From a Patron's Letter

"Thanks for your promptness in sending the diamond ring I ordered. Also thanks for sending such a beautiful ring—it is finer even than I had expected."

We often have an order to send on a ring at a certain price—"the best we can do at that value"—and invariably receive a letter of thanks from the patron after receipt of the ring.

PLAIN CLOTHES OFFICERS WILL ASSIST POLICE

Morality Men Will Assist in Keeping Down Low Characters About Town.

Two plain clothes morality officers are to take up their activities in conjunction with the city police, according to the decision of the police commission yesterday afternoon. The motion was brought in by Commissioner Jones and finding sympathy with Mayor McClymont was passed.

The duties of these men will be more especially to watch for professional gamblers and other low characters as well as see that the Prohibition Act is administered. According to the motion they will be permanent and it is understood they may be changed from time to time. Alleged disorderly houses will be especially watched.

POWER SCHOONER AT KETCHIKAN UNDER BOLSHEVIKI FLAG

KETCHIKAU, Dec. 6.—Bound from Anadir, Siberia, to Seattle, the power schooner Alaska of Petropavlovsk arrived in Ketchikan and reported to the customs, and with its arrival marked the first entry of any vessel under Bolsheviki register to reach Ketchikan. At Nome they have been arriving and clearing for the past year, but in Southeastern Alaska it is yet a novelty.

Capt. Chas. F. Weckman, of the Alaska, formerly owned the vessel and last spring took it to Anadir, Siberia, where, with the permission of the United States Shipping Board it was sold to Alexander Kharieff, who with his brother own the largest trading outfit in northern Siberia. The vessel was then placed under the Russian soviet register, but as there were no Bolsheviki flags there, the old Imperial Russian flag was flown and is still being used.

"There is no doubt that the Bolsheviki are in control for good, if the people we came in contact with have any say," said Capt. Weckman. "They were so tired of the old rule that they were glad of any change and in the far north conditions are running along smoothly. There is good order and the laws seem to be generally observed."

OIL PERMITS IN ALASKA

Three Hundred Granted Recently Covering Area of 750,000 Acres

JUNEAU, Dec. 8.—No less than 300 applications to file oil leases have been made since last February, the total area covering nearly three-quarters of a million acres.

Recent arrivals from Cold Bay report an extension of the movement to the western side of Lake Becharoff toward Bristol Bay, which is said to be equally as promising if in fact not superior to the coastal area.

An analysis of the movement shows that it is heaviest on the Alaska peninsula and it is being forecast by those who have been in other sections that next Spring will see an even greater number of prospectors along the coast to the westward from Cook Inlet. In the Katalla field during the last forty days the applications received barely exceeded 10,000 acres while not a single application was received from Yatagata, Seward, Kootsnahoo, Wasilla Cape Spencer and Chinitna Bay also show lessening interest, no applications being filed from any of these districts.

Five fields are represented in last month's filings. These are Cold Bay, 45 claims for 115,200 acres; Iliamna, 7 claims for 17,920 acres; Anchorage, 5 for 12,800 acres; Katalla, 7 for 10,460 acres and Aniakchak Bay 2, for 5,120 acres. It is known that in the Aniakchak field, the last named, there are a considerable number of claims located on which no applications have yet been filed, 24 being located in a single group. There are also a large number of preference right claims in the Yakataga district for which it is known that preference right applications will be filed in the near future. In fact it is conservatively estimated that more than three quarter of a million acres in all fields have been located by oil prospectors.

Out of that number the applications for claims in the several districts have been filed as follows:

Cold Bay	148	378,880
Katalla	55	93,893
Yakataga	34	70,400
Iliamna	30	69,400
Kootnahoo	15	33,280
Cape Spencer	3	7,680
Chinitna	3	7,680
Seward	2	3,520
Wasilla	2	5,120
Anchorage	6	15,360
Aniakchak	2	5,120
Total	300	$690,333

SPEAKS FAVORABLY OF ALICE ARM MINE

E. W. McQuade, Superintendent of Moose, on Way to Vancouver Island to See Sick Father.

VANCOUVER, Dec. 8.—E. W. McQuade, superintendent of the Moose mines, Alice Arm, is here en route to Vancouver Island where his father is ill.

Speaking of operations in the north Mr. McQuade says that the Moose mine is progressing well under the bonus system. The lower tunnel advanced 45 feet during the past month. The upper tunnel is showing ore continuously for thirty feet over six feet wide.
