While romantic association certainly plays a large part in the valuation of a girl, fashion invariably dictates its usefulness.

A Birks' Diamond, in its matchless beauty and perfection, not only symbolizes life's greatest romance, but by reason of its exquisite design in setting is likely to be in evidence on all occasions.

BRINGING UP FATHER

EMBARGO STILL ON CANADIAN STORE CATTLE

Matter is Discussed by London Newspaper With View to Removal.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—What is the mystery surrounding the refusal of Lord Lee of Fareham, the Minister of Agriculture, to support the removal of the embargo on the importation of Canadian store cattle to England? asks the Daily Express.

Mr. Prothero (now Lord Ernie) said in April, 1917: "I can assure you that as far as the English Board of Agriculture is concerned we are in favor of the removal of the embargo."

Lord Lee has not only failed to fulfill the promise given by his predecessor. He has definitely stated that, in his judgment, the arguments put forward in favor of removing "the existing safeguards" are far outweighed by the gravity of the objections which would be urged against such a course.

Astonished at Ignorance.

The Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture in Ontario, who is at present on a visit to this country, expressed himself astonished at the ignorance which Lord Lee's argument exhibited, adds the Express.

"When Lord Lee," said Mr. Doherty, "remarks that the statement that Canadian store cattle could be imported economically in competition with the home article, is open to considerable doubt, he is at complete variance with the facts."

"Farmers here are paying 100 per cent more for steers than the corresponding class of cattle fetches in Canada—first because the supply is limited in this country, and, second, because of the comparative absence of pasturage facilities. The extensive areas of pasturage in Canada and the cheaper land enable us to breed our cattle far more cheaply than can be done in England."

Result of Embargo.

"What is the result of the embargo? The store cattle so badly needed in England and Scotland are eagerly snapped up by the United States, and the British consumer receives them in the shape of tinned meat. The English people, instead of buying cattle on the hoof from us at a cheap rate, purchase the same animals, canned from the United States, and pay two profits, Canadian and American."

"We welcome the British statesmen who come to Canada and deliver speeches about the bonds of Empire. Let them forge material bonds; let them open their markets to our cattle and other produce; let them look ahead and cut out trade channels within the Empire."

A New Jersey man died recently in his 101st year after being in bed for twenty-three years. It was a case of "Twenty-three Skiddoo."

A dispatch from Mercer, Pa., states that "hunters' licenses have been issued to fifty women, ranging in age from 18 to 45 years." It is about time that some restraints of this kind was placed on dear-hunting by females. In some communities it is dangerous for a handsome unmarried man to go out alone.

In Korea the married men wear a black hat on their heads. Someone has suggested a black armband for this country.

The recent report of the medical director of Trenton State Hospital, New Jersey, shows that two patients have been cured of insanity by pulling infected teeth out. Both cases were women. The publication of these facts may provide a new basis of hope for husbands who have long since ceased to search for the cause that goes with the effect.

The number of births in England and Wales during 1919 was more than 250,000 below that of 1903 which was a record year. That wartime slogan might well be revived "Produce, produce, produce."

A widow of Newcastle, Indiana, will receive $6000 in quarterly allotments from a wealthy New York woman because she wrote the latter a letter taking her to task for the reported expenditure of $25,000 for the funeral of a pet dog. It is understood that she has subscribed to a clipping bureau in anticipation of the death of the house cat which is getting old.

MY MAJORITY

(Contributed)

"Everybody works in our house But my majority." This is the wall of Honest John, And sore perplexed is he.

"I had a majority once," he states, "Twice big and fine and strong; But that one died and in its place A new one's come along."

"The old one worked and gave no plaint; It sided with the Grand Old Cause."

The new one whines and says, "I ain't."

As strong as father was.

"If my two business agents say That I can work for you, Why I'll be glad to drop around And see what I can do."

"But I've paid up card in both Tories and Independents, And if they wish to 'pull me out' Your star starts its descendence."

The new one whines and says, "I ain't."
