

Fashion and Romance

While romantic association certainly plays a large part in the valuation of a gift, fashion invariably dictates its usefulness.

A Birks' Diamond, in its matchless beauty and perfection, not only symbolizes life's greatest romance, but by reason of its exquisite design in setting is likely to be in evidence on all occasions.

GAME BIRDS INVADE CITY OF MONCTON

MONCTON, N. B., Dec. 16.—With the hunters prohibited from shooting partridge, the birds have become very numerous in the New Brunswick woods. They have also become very tame and as a result it is not unusual for the game birds to stray into this city and parade through the streets. One even walked into a citizen's dining room as he sat at dinner recently. The visitor from the woods was unafraid and was in no particular hurry to leave the human habitation.

EEL STOPS WATER PIPE.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 16.—Because an eel had crawled into the water pipes of the school and was preventing water from reaching the furnaces, the children of King Edward School of this city recently enjoyed a holiday. It took a day to get the visitor out of his retreat and the heat on in the school.
