The Man in the Moon SAYS--

THAT it is easier to succeed than to explain why you failed.

THAT those who have tried, say it is easier to talk yourself out of a good job than into one.

THAT no woman objects to sitting out dances, but she hates other women to see her.

THAT talking of Christmas presents, don't forget a tie for us. Get the most absurd color you can think of, because he likes absurd colors. Like Hull he does!

THAT music is all right unless played by someone who should be cooking the dinner.

THAT Christmas music is real fine except when the artist is the cook and the turkey ought to be in the oven.

THAT the editor says he has been asked to tell what is meant by proportional representation, but he is getting ready for the Christmas holidays and is trying to wish the job on to someone else.

THAT "Proportional Representation is all right to vote, but the very old Harry to explain.

THAT a professor who was asked to give an address on civilization remarked that civilization was a very thin veneer, and that veneer was a very thin layer of wood glued over the face of another piece of wood.

THAT the latest rumor is the Independent Political Association (is) back Harry Rochester as mayor.

THAT of course it is not true, because Mr. Wright says so, nor is it true that the association is Mr. Newton's little private organization. All rumors are untrue, past, present or prospective.

THAT Manitoba is strong on divorce and people are wondering if the cause is the prevalence of blizzards or mosquitoes or thunder storms. Probably the last mentioned, for a storm usually precedes a divorce.

KAISER SPENDS DEAL OF MONEY

Wilhelm has Fifty Servants in Addition to Official Followers

DOORN, Holland, Dec. 16.—Revelations in the Prussian state legislature at Berlin of the sums of money which the former German Emperor has been permitted to draw from Germany during the past two years, together with the announcement that the Dutch government will tax him for an annual income of 1,300,000 guilder, have caused the burghers of Doorn to speculate as to what he does with all this money. (Nominally a guilder is worth 10 cents.)

From Germany, the former Emperor is said to have drawn 1,000,000 guilders, equivalent at present rates of exchange to 11,138,000 German marks, also the proceeds of the sale of some of his property in the Wilhelmstrasse, said to be 10,000,000 marks. Besides all this income, the Prussian government has contributed additionally to the furnishing of his new house at Doorn.

In High Style

For a long time William complained of being financially embarrassed. Now, however, according to the people of Doorn, he appears to be living in high style.

Not counting his marshal, General von Gontard and other members of his immediate suite, approximately 50 servants are now employed to keep up the house at Doorn. This does not include the workmen who are still engaged in various repairs about the house and grounds.

There are 24 charwomen, who are kept busy polishing the floors, craswork, and otherwise keeping the castle up to the standard of old German cleanliness demanded by the former Empress Augusta Victoria. They receive the equivalent of about a dollar a day. Ten of them live in the castle.

In all, William now employs six cooks, who include a chef and an assistant living at the castle and four women who come in to work by the day. There are also a number of gardeners and personal servants.

Army of Servants

To maintain this army of servants, whose average wages, the people of Doorn say, must be something more than a dollar a day, William pays in wages alone about $20,000 a year. Their upkeep costs him as much more and this does not include the high salary employees, like General von Gontard, Captain von Hiseman, the "court physician" and secretaries, who must cost the ex-emperor about $20,000 more.

During his eighteen months' stay at the Houthof Castle at Amerongen, William lived at the rate of $325 daily. In his own estate he is believed to be spending much more.

In addition to buying the House of Doorn, he has this year spent approximately $32,500 on a little hospital which he presented to the village of Amerongen.

PREPARE TO LEAVE EUROPE FOR STATES

Fifteen Millions said to be Ready to Come to This Continent

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Fifteen million men, women and children of all social and economic classifications, representing every nationality in Europe, are fighting for passage to the United States, according to reports submitted by seventeen trans-Atlantic steamship company representatives to Frederick A. Wallis, Commissioner of Immigration at Ellis Island.

Every seaport city and town along the western and southern coasts of Europe, they said, is crowded with persons, who in their eagerness to leave for the United States, have sold their homes and everything they possessed. Passport offices abroad are reported to be besieged with applicants.

They also expressed the opinion that 5,000,000 Germans and Austrians are packed up and ready to sail as soon as the United States makes peace with their governments.

HEADACHES Make Life Miserable

Headaches are one of the most REPEtitive troubles one can have, and it is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

Headaches seem to be habitual with many people; some are seldom, if ever, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbings, the intense pains, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed, the headaches will still continue to exist.

The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters keep the stomach, liver and bowels toned up is proof enough to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headaches.

Mrs. Harold Landon, Owen Sound, Ont., writes:—"My system was run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head, which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health, so I took another and am glad to say that it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to my friends, who were in a similar condition, and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."
