BRINGING UP FATHER

Fashion and Romance

While romantic association certainly plays a large part in the valuation of a gift, fashion invariably dictates its usefulness. A Birks' Diamond, in its matchless beauty and perfection, not only symbolizes life's greatest romance, but by reason of its exquisite design in setting is likely to be in evidence on all occasions.

LITTLE FOLKS GIVE FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Unusual Ability Displayed by the Youngsters of Miss Mercer's Class.

The Central Hotel dining room was crowded to the doors last evening on the occasion of the Christmas closing entertainment given by the pupils of Miss Mercer's room. The audience was not in the least disappointed for the kiddies did remarkably well, so well that all present were loud in their praise, both of the skill shown by the performers and of the splendid training they had received. It was difficult to believe that so much talent could be secured in one room and that one teacher had been able to accomplish so much. The arrangements were in the hands of Miss Mercer and Mrs. Fraser played the accompaniments. The feature of the evening seemed to be the dances, but all the parts were well taken.

The programs were Japanese art productions made by one of the pupils, Alice Enyu, and her mother, Mrs. Enyu. They were much admired.

The big dining hall had been transformed for the occasion into a miniature theatre. There was a platform at one end and everywhere were decorations of bunting and greenery intermingled with lights and dashes of color that added much to the general effect. The flags were kindly loaned by the St. Andrew's Society and other decorations by George Frizzell.

W. J. Cash presided. Miss Sewell took the money at the door and Miss Hall and Mrs. Frizzell assisted the girls in dressing.

The program was as follows:

1. Carol—"Silent Night," by the school.
2. Recitation—"Xmas Gifts," Catherine Irvine.
3. Dialogue—"Curing an Invalid," Evelyn Dalby, Laura Frizzell, Agnes Iverson, Beatrice Cash and Alice Jacobson.
4. Song—"Santa Claus."
5. Folk Dance—Dargesen.
6. Chorus—"Jingle Bells," by the school.
7. Duet—"Autumn Winds," Kay Enyu, Alice Enyu.
8. Recitation—"Lettie Bateese," George Alston.
9. Dance—Highland Fling—Hester Black.
10. Song—"Jolly Old St. Nicholas," School.
11. Dance—"Harem," Laura Frizzell.
12. Recitation—"Soap," Robert Kelly.
13. Dialogue—"Playing Santa," Nellie Wilson, Nelno Director, G. Alston, Mabel Oliver, Yoshi Katsuyama.
14. Wagon Drill.
15. Folk Dance—Ribbon.
16. Chorus—"Good King Wenceslas."
17. Dance—Irish Jig, Beatrice Cash, Laura Frizzell.
18. Recitation—"The Night before Christmas," Spino Gurvich.
19. Dance—"Sailor's Hornpipe," Zelma Director, Beatrice Cash.
20. Carol—"The First Meal," School.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

At the hospital board meeting last night the report of the house committee protesting the requirements of pupil nurses entering university was adopted. The requirements are considered too stiff for nurses graduating from any hospitals but the large ones in Vancouver or Victoria for they call for the nurse to have graduated from a hospital of at least 100 beds, 75 per cent of which are public and also a good deal of experience in social service work is required.

SUB-CHASERS FOR ALASKA

Recommendations that Eight be Assigned to Northern Waters by U.S.

SEATTLE, Dec. 17.—A recommendation has been made to the Navy Department that eight submarine chasers be assigned to Alaskan waters for aiding the Bureau of Fisheries to enforce regulations, in a report made by Capt. J. M. Ashley, commander of the sub-chasers operating in Alaskan waters during the past season.

Capt. Ashley refers to the depletion of the salmon fishery in Southeastern Alaska and states as reasons the lack of restrictive legislation and practices in violation of present laws, which he divides into three classes—fish piracy, Sunday fishing trips and fishing within spawning streams. He considers the latter to be the principal menace to the industry and that it can be controlled only by greatly increased patrol facilities.

Capt. Ashley recommended that the Navy Department detail a fleet of eight sub-chasers or scout patrol boats and a flagship or tender for patrol work in Southeastern Alaska during the salmon fishing season. In the season of 1920, Lieut. Thompson, commanding sub-chaser 29, rendered valuable assistance to the fishery wardens and at all times heartily co-operated in the bureau's operations. Patrol work can most effectively be carried on if organized jointly by the bureau's representative in charge of the district and the senior officer of the patrol fleet.

SANTA CLAUS WILL VISIT THE HOSPITAL

Turkey Dinner will also be Served to Staff and All the Patients.

There will be turkey dinner at the General Hospital on Christmas for every member of the staff and every patient. To this end five turkeys have been donated by Geo. Frizzell and P. Burns & Co. and if this supply does not suffice, the Hospital Board will supply more. Thanks to the butchers for the generous donation was expressed by President D. G. Stewart at the hospital board last night. Santa Claus is also to visit the hospital and it is being arranged to have a gift for every one of the patients. To assist in the expenses, the Ladies' Auxiliary have given $25 and the members of the Hospital Board will make up an additional $25. Christmas is to be as merry as possible at the hospital this year.

HOSPITAL BOARD PROTEST AGAINST QUALIFICATIONS

Consider that Requirements Demanded for Entering University cannot be Followed Here.
