Rescinding Luxury Tax Will be Popular.

There can be no disputing the fact that the rescinding of the Luxury Tax shows wisdom on the part of the Dominion Government and the news of the action comes with relief to nearly everyone. The tax has practically just arrived at a stage of proper operation and its effect is particularly noticeable at the season of Christmas buying when ten, twenty or thirty per cent, or even more is being demanded for articles that many ordinary persons would be loath to classify as luxuries at all. Its rescinding will be anything but an unpopular move.

Government Claims Revival of Trade.

It is to be hoped the claim made by the government that there will be an impetus of trade as a result of the repealing of the tax will prove fact. Trade demands industry and industry is sadly on the wane all over Canada this winter. From east and west and north and south comes the word "unemployment," that word of curse. Now the situation may become more encouraging. At any rate, if industry does not revive instantly, the difficulty of buying will be somewhat lessened.

Is Prince Rupert a Hopeless Case? No!

Whenever the general situation of the country is discussed, a citizen of Prince Rupert must think of Prince Rupert. Many persons in Prince Rupert almost seem to be discouraged with their lot and the place but looking at it from a general standpoint, is it so bad? Is it worse or as bad as many other places? We think not. Winter always has been a quiet time in this country where climatic conditions hinder almost every industry. In the spring will come the same old optimism, a well founded optimism on potential resources and undiscovered wealth. Every place is having a hard present but not everywhere has as bright a future as is undoubtedly still in store for Prince Rupert and district.

STOPPED HER HEADACHES

Years Of Suffering Ended By "Fruit-a-lives"

112 HAZEN ST., ST. JOHN, N. B.

"It is with pleasure that I write to tell you of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine 'Fruit-a-lives', made from fruit juices. I was a great sufferer for many years from Nervous Headaches and Constipation. I tried everything, consulted doctors; but nothing seemed to help me until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'."

After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved of these troubles and have been unusually well ever since. Miss ANNE WARD.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Monday, December 20.

High, 8:38 a.m., 19.2 feet.

21:30 p.m., 16.4 feet.

Low, 4:59 a.m., 8.4 feet.

15:20 p.m., 7.4 feet.

Tuesday, December 21.

High, 9:32 a.m., 20 feet.

22:32 p.m., 17.2 feet.

Low, 3:44 a.m., 8.7 feet.

16:23 p.m., 6 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

TIMBER SALE X 2837.

Sealed tenders will be received by the District Forester, Prince Rupert, not later than noon on the 22nd day of December, 1920, for the purchase of Licence X 2837, near section, B. C., to cut 6,500 Hemlock and Jackpine trees.

One year will be allowed for removal of timber.

Further particulars of the Chief Forester, Victoria, or the District Forester, Prince Rupert, B. C.

AUSTRIAN JEWS ARE KIDNAPPED

Budapest Police Can Neither End It nor Detect Criminals

BUDAPEST, Dec. 21.—Mysterious kidnapping of rich Jews continues here and the police seem unable to end it or detect the criminals.

Recently three wine merchants who had gone to the country disappeared. The police followed their tracks to the Lake Balaton, where the water washed ashore a boat in which the hats of the merchants were found. All further trace was lost and there fate still is unknown, although there is every indication of murder.

The case of Jacob Reissman, a rich piano manufacturer, belongs to the same category. Reissman was carried away from his home in Budapest by three men who pretended to be detectives of the military police. Reissman vanished with him the contents of his safe. It is considered certain that the unfortunate manufacturer was robbed and killed, although neither the perpetrators nor the body of the victim were found.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THAT Greece always was slippery, and fickle too.

THAT it is an unknown quantity.

THAT the dropping of the luxury tax has its appeal and election time is near.

THAT it is a great vote catcher, anyway.

THAT Brennan wasn't satisfied with being knocked out, but comes up smiling and asks to be killed.

THAT where there's sporting life there'll be a white hope and some of them are very optimistic.

THAT the small boy who can't be good these days is hopeless, indeed.

THAT South America says she can run a League of Nations if somebody else finds the league.

THAT you never know your friends or your enemies either.

THAT it is said some persons were in police court this morning to get an introduction.

THAT some were surprised and others weren't.

THAT if you don't feel remorseful today it's because you haven't bought your Christmas presents yet.

THAT those who bought theirs last week and paid as high as 50 per cent luxury tax are feeling the pang today.

THAT they told us two weeks ago to do our Christmas shopping early, too.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

December 21, 1910

The well-known firm of Kelly, Douglas, of Vancouver, wholesale grocers and produce dealers, who have shown their faith in the future of Prince Rupert by deciding to open up a branch here, have their fine building on First Avenue almost completed and ready for occupancy.

After being fast aground on the mud flats at the entrance of the Narrows since yesterday morning the Princess Beatrice was hauled off this morning. She was not at all damaged and proceeded under her own steam on her journey to Prince Rupert.

The Princess Beatrice made a late call at Prince Rupert last night, only remaining in port a short while, taking on passengers for the southern coast cities for the Christmas holidays.

The city council held an "extraordinary" meeting last evening at the Empress Theatre and successfully refuted charges of a slanderous nature made against them by a certain section of the press of this city.

The theatrical artists will be sorry to hear that eggs are now being put up in several odors.
