LONG MUSH TO FT. MACPHERSON

Mounted Police Mushers Arrive from Hat River and will Leave for Mackenzie New Years

DAWSON, Dec. 23.—An expedition of Royal Canadian Mounted Police, consisting of five mushers headed by Sergeant Dempster has returned to Dawson after spending two weeks relaying supplies to Hat River 150 miles from Dawson. About New Year's the party will make a final dash for Fort McPherson near the mouth of the Mackenzie River, where they will meet similar expeditions from Herschel Island and Rampart House. The party will be back here in February or March and will likely bring advice from Fort Norman, the new oil centre, and also from the whalers and the explorers wintering along the Arctic Coast in the vicinity of Herschel Island.

GERMAN FINANCIAL FIRM SENDING OUT TRADE LITERATURE

is Not Getting a Very Enthusiastic Welcome Here and is Looked at Askance

There have been received in the city pamphlets from the "Bank für Handel und Industrie," a German banking institution of Berlin, towards "initiating and increasing business relations between itself and clients at home and abroad." To stimulate the foreign end of its business this institution is also sending out a publication, "Foreign News."
This is not the first German firm that is sending out its propaganda to this country, but the literature is being looked at askance and enthusiasm is not aroused. It is evidently too soon after the war for business relations to be considered with any spirit of enthusiasm.

COLORED MAN GETS SIXTY DAYS' HARD

Benny Brown had Bad Police Record and Served Before

Benny Brown, the colored man, was up on remand before Magistrate McMorde this morning on the charge of having in his possession a concealed weapon, an article known as a knuckle duster.

Upon going into the witness box to give testimony in his own behalf, he gave his explanation of how he came to be on the S.S. Cleghorn the evening of his arrest. Upon being asked by the magistrate as to whether he had ever been up in court before for an offence, he stated that he had been twice, once for sedition and once for indecent exposure.

Warden Bailey upon being called produced a telegram from the chief of police in Vancouver showing that he had been four times before the authorities in British Columbia and had served a two-year term in the penitentiary.

The magistrate informed the accused that it might have been better for him if he had stated the truth whilst on oath in the box, and sentenced him to sixty days' hard labor.

Took Objection.
Before being taken to the cells by the police constable, the prisoner took strong objection to the severity of the sentence, remarking that a fine he thought would have filled the bill.

Warden Bailey again proved the efficacy of the finger print method of criminal investigation, as by its use he was able to obtain corroborative evidence of this particular prisoner's record within four hours of his wiring the Vancouver police. Warden Bailey was the only member of the local police force who was able to state in court this morning just exactly what a knuckle duster was, through having had occasion in the past to have seen them produced in police court proceedings.

TRAIL CLUB PILES UP BIG MARGIN IN BILLIARD MATCHES

The G.W.V.A. versus the Trail Club match, the sixth of the series of billiard matches for the Trail Cup, was played last evening at the Wanderers and Trail clubs respectively, and resulted in a win for the Trail by the excellent margin of 224 points. The games were not remarkable for any very brilliant efforts on the part of the players, that between Dr. West of the G.W.V.A. and Wallace Anderson being probably the most interesting. Defeated by only a very few points by his older and more experienced opponent, Anderson showed excellent form and put up a first rate game, sticking to it pluckily to the last shot. Below are the names of the players and their scores:
Jack Judge (Trail), 200; L. Maye (G.W.V.A.), 164.
W. Anderson (Trail), 185; Dr. West (G.W.V.A.), 200.
J. Sudan (Trail), 200; C. L. Youngman (G.W.V.A.), 163.
Brown (Trail), 200; Geo. Reid (G.W.V.A.), 154.
Shakespeare (Trail), 200; Sgt. Jepson (G.W.V.A.), 179.
G. McIlroye (Trail), 200; Hemming (G. W. V. A.), 103.
Total, Trail, 1,185; G. W. V. A., 963.

Amongst the large number of people from the Queen Charlotte Islands who arrived yesterday on the way south for the holidays the following are registered at the Prince Rupert Hotel: R. Toubier, Henry Pelace, E. C. Lee, A. C. Pye, D. Waland, J. R. Booth, and W. E. Jones.
