"The Spirit of Christmas,"
by Archbishop Du Vernet.

Back of all the outward manifestations of the festive season: behind the greetings on the street, the gatherings in the home, the giving of presents, the crowding to decorated churches, and the singing of joyous carols, there lies that which gives a genuine value to all this exuberant expression. It is the spirit of Christmas.

Viewing all these festivities we may well ask, What is the spirit of Christmas? It is the spirit of the Mother and the Child. It is both parental and filial love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being too human on Christmas Day. The closer we come to the heart of children the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try and separate human and divine love as though they were not of the same essence. All human love which is truly unselfish flows from the same source. This is the Christmas message which is expressed so clearly by St. John: "God is love, and love comes from God. He who lives in love lives in God and God in him."

It is Intensely Human
And is Not Exclusive.

Religion is not something apart by itself, a strange and foreign element which comes into our life in an uncanny manner. Religion is that which unifies our whole being by giving us a supreme purpose and motive round which we can organize all our scattered interests. Religion is that which re-enforces our noblest natural instincts, such as parental and filial love, with a fresh inflowing from the Infinite and the Eternal. Religion is that which enables us to revalue all our values as to what is highest and best in life, and in the Christian evaluation the Mother and the Child are not given a lower, but a higher place. "We shall find a babe lying in a manger."

The spirit of Christmas while intensely human is not exclusive. While it brings sunshine into our own dwelling and makes our children peal with laughter it always carries us further afield with the longing to make other homes brighter and other children happier. And so rising like an aeroplane in circles from the earth we discover that the spirit of Christmas is the Spirit of the Universal Father revealing His infinite love for all His children in a visible and a practical manner. God so loved the world of men and women and children that He gave of His Inmost Being a part to live and labor and suffer in our very midst and in our outward form so as to bring the Divine and the Human into the closest possible fellowship.

The Spirit of Christmas
Indeed the Spirit of Christ.

In a word, the spirit of Christmas is the Spirit of Christ. It is the spirit of self-sacrificing love for the good of all; assisting the needy, guiding the perplexed, cheering the despondent, comforting the sorrowing, strengthening the weak, and inspiring the brave. The spirit of Christmas aims at bringing peace and goodwill into every hidden nook of the human heart, and into every dark corner of the social world.

The spirit of Christmas can never die. The story of the Mother and the Child will be told with renewed interest from age to age. The message of the Eternal Love of the Universal Father will go ringing down the centuries with ever-growing value, because however men may advance in intelligence and develop in character the need for fellowship both human and divine will never die.

The Spirit of Christ must be made incarnate in us as individuals and humanity as a whole before the spirit of Christmas can be outgrown.

HAD RHEUMATISM
FOR FIVE YEARSNo Return of the Trouble Since Taking
"FRUIT-A-TIVES"MR. JOHN E. GUILDERSON
P. O. Box 128, Parrsboro, N. S.

"I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up without assistance. I tried different medicines I saw advertised and was treated by doctors in Amherst, also in my home town, but the Rheumatism came back.

In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism, and took one box and got relief; then I took them right along for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since.

Anyone who would care to write me as regards 'Fruit-a-tives' I would be glad to tell them what 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me."

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

J. J. Shipton, a North Vancouver Engineer, Proposes Using Moresby Island Magnetite

J. J. Shipton, a Vancouver electrical engineer, is now in Victoria making an effort to obtain a loan to establish an electric iron smelter at North Vancouver.

Mr. Shipton proposes obtaining his ore from Collison Bay, Moresby Island, where he has contracted for a supply. He proposes to start producing five tons a day, increasing to twenty tons. The plant would be established to produce both iron and steel.

He claims to have in sight 25,000,000 tons of magnetite ore on the Queen Charlotte Islands. The ore is 70 per cent iron and is practically free of sulphur and phosphorus.

"HIGHLAND MARY'S"
TOMB WAS REMOVED

Extension of Shipyard Necessitated This Being Done

GREENOCK, Scotland, Dec. 24. —With great solemnity the remains of Mary Campbell, Robert Burns' "Highland Mary," have been transferred from the Old West Kirkyard here to a new grave in Greenock cemetery. The removal had been necessitated by an extension of a local shipyard.

From the spot where Mary was buried 134 years ago, the coffin was borne reverently on the shoulders of representatives of Burns Clubs from all over the country to its new resting place, and a large crowd of Burns admirers attended an impressive funeral service.

Mary Campbell, a beautiful Argyleshire girl, plighted her troth to the poet after a romantic courtship, but she died of fever. By her Burns was inspired to some of his most famous Scottish love songs.

The monument which Burns admirers erected on Mary's grave in 1842 now covers the new tomb.

MOTION PICTURE MAN
IS GOING INTO FAR
NORTH THIS WINTER

Charles F. Berger, the New York moving picture man, who has been taking pictures in the vicinity of Prince Rupert for some time now, will leave shortly for Skagway after which he will go to Banff. He will return from Banff in a short time and will go north to Dawson, from where he expects to leave with one of the mounted police mushing parties over the snow to Herschel Island. He will probably be the first motion picture man to ever get into that country in the middle of the winter.

Mr. Berger has been taking pictures of the wrecked steamer Prince Rupert during the past few days.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

December 24, 1910

Substantial progress towards the upbuilding of a fine modern city marks the close of the year 1910 in Prince Rupert. With plans and specifications prepared for city improvements approaching three quarters of a million dollars, and contracts for work to the value of $500,000, practically all in hand, the city is surely forging ahead.

A charming entertainment was given by the scholars of the Presbyterian Sunday school at the Empress Theatre last night. Santa Claus appeared on the stage with his capacious bag and made all the youngsters happy with his generous gifts.

Three building permits were issued at the city hall during the past week, the amount exceeding $7,000.

Ensign and Mrs. Johnstone, Captain Kerr and Lieutenant Wright, are working with unsparring energy towards making the Salvation Army Christmas dinner an event to be remembered by all who partake of it. The best of good cheer will prevail and a most cordial invitation is extended to all whether wealthy or otherwise.
