PRINCE GEORGE

Negotiations with the government at Victoria in regard to the establishment of a pulp and paper plant here, have been very successful and everything points to an early start being made on construction in the near future.

W. P. Ogilvie, President of the Board of Trade, is out as a candidate for the mayoralty at the next municipal election.

Cold weather the last few days has driven the mercury below the zero mark.

There was a big crowd at the Liberal victory dance held at the Ritz Keifer Hall on the evening of the 2nd. The victorious candidate, Mayor Perry, was on the floor rubbing shoulders with his smiling but defeated friend, Sam Goecker, the Conservative candidate. The supper was served by the Hospital Auxiliary.

Walter Adams, of the P. Burns Co., has been promoted to the position of district travelling representative. Mr. Adams' many friends will be delighted to hear of his good fortune.

Matt Bottrell has sold his sawmill, 28 miles south on the P.G.E., to W. Clark. Mr. Bottrell left on Sunday for the East to spend the winter with relatives.

MAYOR CHURCH RUNNING AGAIN

He and His Opponent Samuel McBride Have Much in Common.

TORONTO, Dec. 29.—"Dick" Whittington, who was three Lord Mayor of London, had nothing in length of mayoralty service on "Tom" Church, better known as "Tommy" Church, but more dignifiedly described as Thomas Langton Church, K. C., who has been for six consecutive years "the boy bachelor" mayor of Toronto, Canada, and is offering himself for election on New Year's Day for the seventh term. There are many, in addition to Mr. Church himself, who are confident that he will be Mayor Church for the seventh year. Why shouldn't "Toronto the Good" continue on the list of Canadian mayors as "that city of Church's" is the question propounded by the present mayor's enthusiastic supporters.

Apparently the only serious opposition that Mayor Church will encounter in his appeal for reelection will be Samuel McBride, former member of the Board of Control, and for many years a city councillor. McBride is putting up a vigorous campaign and is enlisting considerable support among business, professional and other interests who declare that "it is time for a change." On the other hand Church has undoubtedly made many friends during his long incumbency of office, and is prepared to make a stiff fight to retain what his municipal opponents have for some time been describing as "Tommy's life job." There is no other issue of any outstanding importance between the two candidates.

Opposed Before.

McBride ran against Church last New Year's Day, and was beaten by a plurality of about 5,000 votes. There was a third candidate at that election—one J. H. H. Ballantyne, who received 5,589 votes, and Church was elected by plurality vote on a minority of 685 under the combined totals of the two other candidates.

Mayor Church's doughty opponent is a lumber merchant. Politics does not count for much in the contest, both Church and McBride are "Tories" and both are members of the Orange Order, as is Ballantyne a candidate for municipal honors in the city of Toronto.

Another thing both "Tommy" and "Sammy" have in common is the sporting instinct. Church was recently elected a member of the International Baseball League and McBride is president of the Hill-West Racing Association. They have both been connected with athletic and sporting activities for many years, and both are of Toronto birth and education. At the same time the City of Toronto takes its municipal politics very seriously as witness the fact that it sacrifices a New Year's Day holiday for civic electrification, results of elections for the city council, board of control, city engineer and board of education on that day are always awaited with great interest by all classes of the city's population.
