MAKES WILL ON RECORD

Chicago Man Adopts Novel Way of Making, Signing and Witnessing Document

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Earl H.
Reynolds, of the South Bend Elevator Company and a member of the Board of Trade, has made his will on a phonograph record.

Attorneys John E. and Francis J. Callahan dictated their names as the spoken "signatures" of witnesses.

"The voice is mightier than the pen," said Attorney James E.
Callahan. "The judge before whom a phonograph will is offered for probate can tell whether the testator was strong or weak from the tone of his voice, as reproduced by the record. He can also judge whether the testator was of sound and disposing mind, from the fluency or lack of fluency evidenced by the record."

The Illinois statute provides for a written will.

MISTOOK ELEVATOR BOY FOR COLONEL

General Nivelle and Party had Laugh while Visiting Boston

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 30.— Roosevelt Jennings, colored, is an elevator man at City Hall. After he had carried General Georges Nivelle and his party up to the office of Mayor Peters recently he lost control of his car when the defender of Verdun said to him:

"Ah, mon brave enfant! I did not think to meet you here. I could hardly recognize you without your fez and your baggy trousers of the war-time. You fought valiantly for France."

But Jennings hastened his denial:

"Those trousers are pretty baggy," he stammered. "But I been faithful to this year elevator thrill ride through the war, General."

Then General Nivelle, who had mistaken Roosevelt Jennings for a Moroccan colonel who fought under him at Verdun and on the Aisne line, recognized the ex-fusion in faces and laughed more heartily than any one else in the party.

MICHIGAN FANS TO HONOR BASEBALL STAR

DETROIT, Dec. 31.—Plans for a monster testimonial banquet to Ty Cobb, now manager of the Tigers, took definite form when George M. Mathes, president of the Michigan-Ontario League, announced that the function will be held at the Statler Hotel about the middle of January.

Mathes, who was the moving spirit in the minor league's successful effort to restore peace in the major league, will get in touch with Cobb immediately and ascertain the most convenient time for the "peace" to come in from Georgia, and lend his presence to the gathering.

Mathes would like to make the banquet tendered to Johnny Evers in Chicago small in comparison, and to insure success, has enlisted the help of many of Cobb's personal friends.

Plates for 400 will be set, and among the guests will be speakers of accepted ability. The idea is to impress Ty with the esteem in which he is held and to guarantee that the fandom of the city will throw him its undivided support when the bell sends the American League teams on their way next spring.

DON'T LET A COLD RUN ITS COURSE

Liabie to Develop Into Influenza, Pleurisy or Pneumonia.

Many people have the idea that there is no use in fighting a cold. Any physician will tell you that is a grave mistake, one no person can afford to make.

Just as soon as soreness of the throat, feverish condition, soreness of muscles of back and limbs, and other indications of a cold appear—get busy. Start taking Grip-Fix, two capsules every two hours for three doses. That will usually relieve the case, and only one capsule need be taken hereafter every two or three hours until the cold is gone.

Grip-Fix will conquer almost any cold in a night. It will also relieve even a case of grippe in 36 hours. It is a remedy which has been tried by thousands during the last ten years with invariable success.

Keep a box of Grip-Fix in the house.
A cold of a few hours in starting treatment of a cold means a lot. Get a box

Grip-Fix is for sale at all druggists—

Those Washable Rugs— We Can Help You With Them

Is there anything that adds more to the cheerfulness of bedroom, bath or den than a well-kept washable rug?

True, they are difficult to keep clean, these days when the youngsters are so much indoors, and most backbreaking to wash—unless you have tried our way.

Ours is the labor-saving, efficient method.
You simply make a roll of your rugs—then telephone us. We scour and rinse, and scour and rinse them again until much of their first freshness and color are restored.

Or perhaps your blankets, comforters, curtains and pillows need washing. All these things that it is so difficult to wash in the home we make a specialty of. Our pure soft water, fleecy suds and superior drying enable us to handle this class of work in a way that no laundress can rival.

Telephone, or mail us a card, and we will have our driver call.
