

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

HAZELTON

The winter ambulance for the Hospital arrived from Edmonton last week and was used within 36 hours of its arrival here. It is a well built conveyance and is considered a splendid investment, its need being long felt for the long runs that are often required in bringing patients to the hospital.

A very delightful Christmas Tree and Concert was held here on last Friday night in the Assembly Hall. The concert program was divided into two parts; the first section being recitations and exercises by the children under the supervision of Miss Ketchison, the school teacher. The second part of the program included various numbers by grown up talent in the town, including Mesdames Chetleburgh, Baynes, Miss Wattie and W. Broadfoot. After the concert Santa Claus arrived to delight the hearts of the youngsters with an abundance of gifts.

A party of Indians arrived from Moricetown, Burns Lake and Houston last week with furs for sale. One of the natives had $3,000 worth of furs. A good many of them were sold during Christmas week and the merchants reported business good among them. They are badly in need of clothes and supplies.

Miss Ketchison was the recipient of a handsome leather bag on school closing day last week. The gift was made by the children of her school at the old town.

A. McPhee was brought to the local hospital on Saturday morning last suffering from scalds received in a steam shovel accident. He succumbed on Sunday and his body is being shipped to Edmonton for interment.

Miss Pearl V. Wall, formerly assistant superintendent of the local hospital, is now in charge of the Sandom Hospital in the Slooan country.

The G.W.V.A. masquerade ball on New Year's Eve was a pronounced success and most enjoyable to all present. All the circumstances tended to make it the best yet and the guests thought that it was. Music was supplied by a Prince Rupert orchestra and delightful refreshments were supplied by the ladies. Miss C. Goddard, as Britannia, won first prize; W. Wattie, "The Lit-up Bum," second; and Mrs. L. Graf, as Little Red Riding Hood was third. The judges were W. W. Anderson, Horace Duhamel and J. S. Bag.

Work is to begin on the Sunrise Group here immediately. A shipment of supplies arrived on Saturday's train and Duke Harris, who is to be in charge, arrived Monday. About six men will be used until the property really opens up in the spring.

At a recent meeting of the hospital board it was decided to make a drive for $2,000 to add to the funds before January 29.

VANDERHOOF

The annual school Christmas Tree was held last week here. A larger crowd than ever turned out to hear the children and some of the grown ups perform. The good sized hall was crowded long before the concert began and many had to stand all the way through. Rev. David Gray was in the chair and the programme was generous and varied. It consisted mainly of children's exercises which reflected great credit on the instructors, Miss Phoebe Tourigny, Mrs. Warren Johnson and F. W. Moore. At the close of the concert, Santa Claus arrived to distribute an abundance of gifts among the youngsters.

M. E. Berger met with a painful accident last Friday when working at the saw in his workshop. Somehow he got his left hand in it and before it could be withdrawn he was badly cut. The first three fingers are entirely gone and the fourth is badly cut.

The winners of the G. J. Watt essay competition have been announced. The judging was done by George Ogston and the following is the result: First, Gerald Loper, Chilco School; second, Sadie Campbell, Vanderhoof; third, Winnifred Bond, Collishaw School.

Considerable building has been going on here of late in preparation for the opening of increased spring business. J. M. Johnstone has had his warehouse enlarged. The McCorkell store has been considerably enlarged and E. B. Smith is rebuilding Warren Strong's warehouse.
