

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

COLONEL PECK TELLS G.W.V.A. OF CONFERENCE

Success Achieved by Delegation
Far Exceeded Expectations.

Colonel Cyrus W. Peck, V. C., M. P., addressed the Great War Veterans' Association at a special meeting last night on the fisheries question and the result of the mission of the recent delegation to Ottawa. Colonel Peck stated that the results achieved far exceeded the expectations of the members. The new reforms will now make a naval reserve on this coast a possibility which, under the old conditions was out of the question.

The delegation had met with much opposition from big interests and other sources but the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, was a broad minded man and could readily see where the reforms urged by the delegation were of great advantage to the Pacific coast fishing industry.

In the matter of the re-establishment of soldiers in the fishing business, Col. Peck stated that he had taken the matter up with the Minister and Commissioner Black. The outlook was very encouraging in this respect, but nothing definite had been done, so he could make no statement or promises.

THRILLING PHOTOPLAY AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Bent on cracking a safe in the Sub-Treasury in New York, Geo. Walsh is seen in the photoplay "Luck and Pluck" to be screened at the Westholme tonight, to great advantage, in the role of a would-be burglar. He is diverted from his purpose, however, and gets on the trail of a gang of real plotters. How he foils their purposes is vividly shown in a succession of the most thrilling incidents. He has a succession of wild experiences and eventually lands a gang of German spies where they belong. A Harold Lloyd comedy and a Mutt and Jeff picture completes the programme.

NEW MILL FOR WHALENS IN WASHINGTON STATE

A four million dollar paper mill is to be erected at Port Angeles, Washington, to use British Columbia pulp, and will be in operation by next fall, according to George F. Whalen, who has returned to Vancouver from the east after organizing capital for the new industry. The money is largely from United States capitalists.

Operation of this plant opens up another channel for better marketing of British Columbia pulp, according to Mr. Whalen. It enables the paper consumers to avoid the high duty on Canadian paper. Whalen states that the demand for pulp from British Columbia is very strong and increasing rapidly. The Canadian directors of the company are Mr. James Whalen and Mr. George F. Whalen.

LIEUT. J. M. ATCHESON GETS MILITARY CROSS

Col. Peck Makes Presentation for Valour in Active Service.

At the meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association last evening, Lieut. J. M. Atcheson was presented with the Military Cross by Colonel C. W. Peck. This decoration was won by Lieut. Atcheson at the Canal du Nord under very gallant and trying conditions. A body of the enemy had been overlooked in an advance and after a dugout had been passed a large number of them sprung up practically cutting off Lieut. Atcheson and his small platoon. Although severely wounded, the lieutenant led his men until the enemy had been overcome. Lieut. Atcheson enlisted as a private.

The action by D. Cochrane against C. P. Riel & Co. of Langara Island will not be heard as the amount in question between the two parties has been paid.
