

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

NEW CHURCH OPENED IN SOUTH BULKLEY

First Church in Sparsely Settled
Area Opened Last Sunday
By Archbishop of Caledonia.

To trace a mighty river back to its source amidst the distant hills is a most interesting undertaking but often it is a most difficult task as Alexander Mackenzie and Simon Fraser found out more than a century ago, but so far as the Skeena and the Bulkley rivers are concerned the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway has made this journey now an easy matter as this railway follows this water grade to the Bulkley summit.

Out of Bulkley Lake near the summit there flows a little stream called the South Bulkley river. One of the finest cattle ranches in Central British Columbia is situated on both sides of the South Bulkley river just where it flows out of Bulkley Lake. Because of the depth of this lake the water flowing out of it seems too warm to freeze even when it is forty below zero. On a cold frosty morning I saw cattle standing up to their knees in this stream freely drinking. Meadow lands stretching far and wide with streams flowing through them make this a fine cattle country. Years ago when I first tramped with a pack on my back over the trail across William Clarke's meadows the railway did not pass his front door as it does now. The settlers were then few and far between but things are changing and last Sunday it was my privilege to open the first church ever erected in the South Bulkley Valley.

It is nearly fourteen years ago since at my request the Rev. F. L. Stephenson became the first resident clergyman in the whole Bulkley valley between Morice town and Burns Lake, a distance of over a hundred miles. With such a vast distance to cover and only trails to follow he was able to hold only an occasional service in Mr. Clarke's house. When later this territory was divided by me first the Rev. Wm. Sweetman and then the Rev. Wm. Crarey continued the work, holding more frequent services in Mr. Clarke's house. Last August the Rev. Arthur Garlick straight from Cambridge, England, was appointed to take charge of the South Bulkley Mission and the time was deemed ripe to do something in the way of erecting a church building. A suitable site was secured by me from David Gibb of Prince Rupert, and the Anglican Synod of Caledonia advanced the money to purchase all the material required and pay for a superintending carpenter. Sixteen sturdy pioneers turned out for a working bee, the women providing the mid-day meal, and soon under the leadership of Mr. B. Keddie the exterior of the building was sufficiently completed to allow us to open it last Sunday. Mr. Garlick assisted me in the service and Mrs. Garlick played the piano which was kindly lent or the occasion by Mrs. Horning. Mr. and Mrs. Call presented their little daughter "June" for baptism and the forty people present fully realized that the opening of the first church of any denomination in this valley was an historic event.

Under pioneer conditions it has always been my policy to make such a building a church hall rather than set it apart exclusively for religious worship, anything of a helpful and uplifting character being permitted to take place in it. What is for the good of men must be to the glory of God. The day following the opening service several meetings were held in this building. In the afternoon there was a meeting of the Farmers' Institute, a meeting of the Stock Breeders' Association, and a meeting of the school supporters when arrangements were made for the first public school in this district to open in this building. In the evening there was a Christmas tree with songs, recitations, and games, when fifty people young and old thoroughly enjoyed themselves. One woman who lived many miles from her nearest woman neighbor said to me with a smile breaking over her care-worn face that it was the first bit of pleasure she had known in several years.

No wonder that in my closing address I could honestly say that I rejoiced to see how in the last two days this church building had already become a true community centre, and could earnestly urge them to remember that the function of the Christian religion is to bind all people and all classes together in brotherly love and mutual service.

F. H. DU VERNET,
Archbishop of Caledonia.
