

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

STREET LIGHTS TURNED ON AT PORT SIMPSON

Grand Concert and Address by Pioneer Chief Features of Inauguration of $6,000 System.

H. Pattinson, of the firm of Pattinson & Ling, returned yesterday from Port Simpson where he saw the street lighting system supplied by the Delco Light plant, which he has just installed, in operation. The new plant has cost the natives of the village over $6,000 and there are 44 lights burning. Later the Indians intend to extend the system so as to provide for house lighting as well as street illumination.

The turning on of the street lights on Monday night last was attended with considerable celebration and a grand concert was held. The Indian band assembled at 6 p. m. on the bandstand in the street and a selection was played by the old lights.

Then Herbert Wallace, the veteran chief, delivered an address. "It gives me great pleasure," said Chief Wallace, "to have the honor of being privileged to turn on the lights of this village. In my own lifetime I have seen the natives of this village develop from a state of heathenism to civilization. May these lights be the forerunner of many other modern improvements."

He then touched a switch and the blaze of white incandescence lit up the village streets. Another band selection was played and the concert then adjourned to the Athletic Hall where a full program was rendered. Among the many pleasing numbers must be remarked the excellent choruses of the Grace Methodist Church Indian choir. Among those taking part were Misses Kelly, Ross, L. M. Deacon, Mesdames F. Ross, F. Magar, E. E. Dudoward, R. W. Large, P. Wesley, M. Scott, Messrs. H. Nelson, James Henry, E. F. Dudoward, C. H. Dudoward, H. Pattinson, W. R. Sampson and Dr. R. W. Large.

"BILL APPERSON'S BOY" AT THEATRE

Jack Pickford in "Bill Apperson's Boy" will be seen tonight at the Westholme, supported by Gloria Hope. The story deals with life in the Blue Ridge mountains and the treatment of a boy by his step-mother. There is a fight with another boy, and all sorts of situations that evolve in the story, making a bright picture, full of action and with a love theme that works out all right in the end.
