MANY POETS IN EMBRYO HERE

Variety of Rhymes Sent in to Compete for Prizes Offered by This Paper.

A varied lot of rhymes have been sent in for the limerick competition for which three prizes are being offered. Most of the verses are in good form, but a few are not limericks although they are not bad rhymes. The following are a few:
The Ads. in today's Daily News
Are waiting for you to peruse.
We've done our share
By placing them there—
Read them all, then you'll know which to use.
Rupert Table Supply.
Tho' the prices of foodstuffs are high
And you look at your cheque with
a sigh;
On economy bent
Each nickel's well spent
When you trade at the Table
Supply.

The Savoy.
If you're wanting a first class
hotel
Where you get home comforts as well,
Take a room right away
Without further delay
Down at the Savoy. It's swell!

Harry Hanson.
In Rupert we have a Bum Plumber
At talking he sure is a hummer,
But when frost in the groun'
Turns our pipes upside down
We're all glad to see our Plumb Bummer.

W. G. Barrie.
When your sweetheart you're longing to marry
But the thought of the cost makes you tarry,
Don't let carpet or chair
Turn your bliss to despair,
Tell your troubles to W. G. Barrie.
St. Regis Cafe.
It's unfortunate we've all got to
eat;
Our stomachs have got us all beat,
But allow me to say
The St. Regis Cafe Stands supreme, and their pastry's a treat.
M. M. Stephens.
If you want to buy some of the earth
Go to Stephens, you'll get money's worth.
He sells houses and lots,
Some are real beauty spots,
And of attention you'll find
there's no dearth.

Rupert Table Supply.
The Table Supply is a wonder;
t never was known yet to blunder.
If you buy there with cash
They won't sell you trash—
But the very best goods in abundance.

David H. Hays.
You've been told that insurance pays
And is convenient in different ways.
I know it's no bluff
I handle the stuff.
Take a pointer, see David H. Hays.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT something very shocking happened in Vancouver and Victoria on Friday night.

THAT perhaps it was the thought of the Legislature meeting next week that made old mother earth tremble.

THAT many people are wishing the flu would come again so they might get a bottle once more.

THAT now that women have the right to vote they are doubtless studying the science of government.

THAT some people say women always understood the science of government better than men, and that is why "the hand that rocks
the cradle rules the world."

THAT the provincial legislature will soon be in session and this will be followed by the opening of the session of the Dominion Parliament. How many women will follow the proceedings of the members with any degree of intelligence. Someone whispers "How many men will do the same?"

THAT the businessman who has nothing worth while to offer the public should never advertise. It would be a mistake.

THAT the man who has something really good to offer the public either in goods or in service is bound to tell it, and that is advertising.
