Shipbuilding Trial Is Yet to Come.

It does not seem to be generally understood that there has been no trial of the shipbuilding dispute as yet in the law courts. All that has taken place is a chambers application at which affidavits were submitted and those who made the affidavits were cross-examined to try to prove whether or not the affidavits were correct.

Suit has been entered by Newman Erb to obtain control of the shipyards and drydock and this will be tried in the Supreme Court when witnesses will be examined and documents produced. In the meantime the board of directors that was in control previous to the change, will remain in control. Mr. Manson and Mr. Mullen are both members of that board.

German Republic Not All Safe Sailing.

All is not safe sailing in the new republic of Germany. A dispatch of yesterday indicates that the country is still much disturbed politically. As long as the ex-kaiser is so near home there will be intrigue after intrigue to replace him on the throne. Not only are there many enthusiasts who believe in the monarchy as an institution, but there are those who hope to profit by espousing a cause that has the power to grant favors. It will be some years before Germany settles down to a stable government.

Many Rumors of Developments.

Many people are investigating the possibility of starting industries in the neighborhood of Prince Rupert. Mention has been made previously of the big mining holdings of the Granby Company up the Ecstall River and of the possibility of a pulp plant being established in the same neighborhood. Several other industries have been mentioned, not forgetting the smelter at Port Edward. All these likely developments up the river along with the need of an outlet for the people of this city, make a road to Port Edward one of the necessities of the day.

A question has arisen as to whether a road to the mouth of the Skeena should follow the route of the railway or go around the Island in the other direction. It is said that there is much level land the other way, that it would be easier to build, and that from a scenic point of view it would be preferable, to the southerly route. That may be all true. Before the road is commenced the both routes should be examined and the best decided on. Perhaps, as has been suggested, there is a better way of crossing to the mainland than at the present bridge near Zenardi Rapids.

Library Sympathizers Should Express Themselves.

There are many people in this city who are keen on getting a public library. This is the time to make their influence felt. We suggest that they get together and urge on the mayor and council the necessity of providing this very necessary institution. This is the time when policies are being formulated and, we take it, the council is glad to have the help of citizens in deciding what things are most necessary.

A citizen discussing the question within the past few days, told of the difference it made to Dawson when the library was established. "It changed the whole tone of the place," was the way he expressed it.

HER CASE SEEMED HOPELESS

But "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Health and Strength

29 St. Rose St., MONTREAL. "I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives". I had given up hope of ever being well. I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia—had suffered for years; and nothing I took did me any good. I read about "Fruit-a-tives" and tried them. After taking a few boxes, of this wonderful medicine made from fruit juices, I am now entirely well!" Madame ROSINA FOISIZ. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.
