SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

LAST DAY FOR NEW LIMERICKS

Contest Closes Saturday After Which Three Prizes Will be Awarded.

The Daily News limerick contest closes Saturday night, after which the judging will take place and the results made known early next week. Those wishing to compete should have their verses in early.

Two verses were received signed by the nom de plume "S. R. Casm," which were not in accordance with the regulations in that they were knockers. One of these dealt with a local business house and cannot be published, the other is as follows:—

Daily News.
This stunt of the bum Daily News is foolish, them's plainly my views;
'Cause along with friend Sam They're not worth a dam
In giving us commensurate news.
St. Regis Cafe.
To St. Regis Cafe we must take off our hats,
Where they feed us calories of sugar and fats,
I fed there a week
And now I'm a freak—
You should see the big bulge in my slats.

Harry Hanson.
There's Hanson, the plumber who toils
At his world famous hot water coils.
With juice he can thaw;
But say girls! tell maw
Disease, with good plumbing he foils.

Westholme Theatre.
To the Westholme Theatre we trip lightly
There Paul and Ben greet patrons nightly,
And the music it charms,
It soothes and it calms,
And the cinema stars shine so brightly.

Martin O'Reilly.
For a nobby dress suit, tie or hat,
Overcoat or a fancy cravat
Don't go chasing around,
Prince Rupert's the town—
Martin O'Reilly's the shop they are at.

McCaffery, Gibbons & Doyle.
A furnished house a la Royal,
A lot of Prince Rupert's swell soil.
If you wish one of these
Just drop around, please,
To McCaffery, Gibbons & Doyle.
Dr. Bayne.
For a molar that gives you great pain
Or a cuspid that drives you insane
Phone one-o-nine,
Hang on to the line
For an appointment with Dr. Bayne.

Martin O'Reilly.
One man I savvy whily
Him name spell Martin O'Reilly,
Him sell'em good clothes
And sock, (call'em hose)
He no catche hole, walk'e milee.

'Tis Billy the man we all know

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE HAD VERY ENJOYABLE SOCIAL

Miss Nymen Speaks on Subject of Organization—Songs, Games and Refreshments.

The Young People's Society of the Methodist Church held a most successful social evening in the basement of the church last night. The gathering was opened by the Honorary President, Rev. T. H. Nuttall, and thirty-one persons were present, most of whom are members of the society. Miss Nymen, president, gave a short address outlining the objects of the organization.

Miss Thelma Knight, the society pianist, then gave a solo and games were indulged in. The gathering was then favored with vocal solos by Messrs. Higgins and E. Graggs, which were enjoyed very much. At 10:30 refreshments were served and the gathering broke up at 11 o'clock with the singing of a hymn. The next meeting will be of a devotional nature on Wednesday next. The following are the officers of the society: Honorary President, Rev. T. H. Nuttall; Second Honorary President, Miss Hudson; President, Miss Nymen; Secretary, Treasurer, W. B. Couldwell; Pianist, Miss Thelma Knight.

FINE PICTURE AND EXCELLENT MUSIC

Mary Pickford in "The Hoodlum" Is Above the Average of Her Films.

One of the best films that has been shown here for many a day was seen last night at the Westholme in "The Hoodlum" with the famous Mary Pickford in the stellar role. It showed to a full house and doubtless tonight again will have a record attendance.

Mary Pickford has lost none of her appeal but rather her ripened experience has made her appeal more genuine and wider. In being able to choose her own plays and put them on under her own direction she makes the most of every situation and gives her wonderful abilities full play.

The transformation from the rich setting to the slums of New York are very marked and shows great versatility on the part of the actress. When she dances the shimmy in the back ally she is splendid, and she is also attractive beyond measure in the wedding scene.

The violin solo by Mrs. Taylor from an arrangement of Scottish airs by Maude S. Kerr was very enjoyable.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLUB HOLD JOLLY DANCE

The Young People's Club of the O. B. U. held its second dance in the St. Andrew's Hall last night and met with good success. There were about 50 couples present who danced till well on in the morning to the strains of the Labor Band which shows considerable improvement.

Refreshments were served at midnight in the supper room. J. H. Burrough, assistant secretary of the Central Labor Council, tended the door.

The tug Lorne came off the ways at the drydock yesterday after undergoing overhaul. The Lorne was in the dock only a brief time as she is being kept busy in the towing business. While Chief Engineer Cameron is having his holidays, Wm. Baillie, second on the Prince Rupert, is acting as chief on the Lorne.
