Limerick Competition Closes Tonight, After Which no Verses Will be Received.

The limerick competition has attracted a great deal of attention. Verses have been sent in from Telkwa, Smithers and Hazelton, although most of them come from Prince Rupert. There has been a deluge of rhymes, much larger than at the former competition, the larger circulation of the paper doubtless being to some extent responsible. The following are some of the verses submitted:

A Medley.
Go to David H. Hays for your lots,
For your house there's Dalgarno & Watts,
For furnishings dandy
See Barrie's he's handy;
Then a tip—Dr. Grant ties good knots.

St. Regis Cafe.
An unfortunate stranger, one day
Muttered, strolling up Rupert's
Broadway,
"From muskeg and stump
I'd sure get the hump
If it weren't for St. Regis Cafe."

Rupert Table Supply.
The ad. of the Table Supply
Reminds me of days gone by
When we all ate our fill
And drank with a will
When the H. C. of L. wasn't high.

Dr. Brown.
There is a dentist in town
Of goodly repute and renown
Who will soon fix that tooth
And restore its lost youth
And the name of that dentist is
Brown.

Prince Rupert Drug Store.
It is never too late to mend,
To the Prince Rupert Drug Store
send;
Get rid of that cold
Before it takes hold,
They can fix it there you may depend.

Joe Brown.
There is a young man of renown
Who goes by the name of Joe
Brown;
In the transfer of trunks
And coal in neat chunks
He's gained his just share of renown.

The Family Shoe Store.
Shoes, slippers and boots galore
Up to the ceiling and down to the floor,
The best makes they sell
All sure to wear well—
Be British! buy from the Family
Shoe Store.

The Alice B.
If you feel like having a spree
Phone Jones for the Alice B.
Do not celebrate with stuff
That makes you feel tough—
Skate, and see how much better you'll be.

Fuller's, Ltd.
Canned goods, coffee and sage
With prices not on the rampage
And Fuller I meet
Their prices can't be beat
I'm Fuller'n I've been for an age.

Boston Grill.
For a place where we can get enough
Where it's not all fuss and fluff,
Oh, the Boston Grill
For you and I, Bill,
All white helpers there and no
bluff.

PATTON ASSISTANT
GENERAL MANAGER OF DOMINION BANK

Toronto, Jan. 31.—Announcement was made at the head office of the Dominion Bank that Frank L. Patton of Winnipeg had been made assistant general manager of the institution.

Patton opened the first office for the Dominion Bank in Winnipeg in 1897 and since that time has been manager in that city. He was made superintendent of the West End Branches twelve years ago. He is chairman of the western sub-section of the Canadian Bank Association.

REFUSE TO ACCEPT GERMAN MINISTER

Dr. Rosen not au fait with the Spanish Government.

MADRID, Jan. 29.—The Spanish Government officially confirms the refusal to assent to the appointment of Dr. Rosen as German minister at Madrid. Spain recently protested to Germany against this appointment on the ground of Dr. Rosen's participation in the Moroccan negotiations and the program of the Algiers convention.

The Man in the Moon
SAYS—

THAT now that the Legislature is safely opened we shall see what we shall see.

THAT as long as the members are not at sea it is all right.

THAT half seas over is also a dangerous condition, not only for legislators but for everyone.

THAT Palestine now has a merchant marine.

THAT it resembles somewhat the Canadian navy.

THAT it is interesting to notice how the navy is growing under a union government.

THAT more was done in one year under the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier than in all the years since the people gave him the G. B.

THAT there was a conspicuous lack of fireworks at the initial meeting of the newly constituted board of police commissioners.

THAT the weather report published Thursday was a very favorable one.

THAT if the climate continues to dry up at the rate it is going it will be difficult to get a drink pretty soon.

It is just as cheap to get your printing done well and done at home as it is to send it away. Try The News Print Shop.

Where Words End, Music Begins

Words, in themselves, are but poor interpreters of emotion. Where words end, music begins. Where words only suggest, music satisfies; it utters with a clear, vibrant voice what otherwise would remain unuttered.

Music will allow you to express your innermost thoughts and ideals.

But how, you ask, can you create this music since you are no musician nor the master of any instrument?

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

has stored up in its magic discs the music of the world's greatest musicians—the soul-children of the music masters. And this music The New Edison will RE-CREATE for you, in your own home, exactly as you would hear it in the grand opera houses and the famous concert halls.

You should read the beautiful book "Edison and Music" and the booklet "What the Critics Say" containing evidence that proves Edison superiority. Ask for copies when you come to hear the New Edison.
