

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from this, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

The removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

HAZELTON

The annual report of the Hazelton Hospital was made at the annual meeting of the board on Thursday evening last in the St. Andrew's Hall. R. S. Sargent, the patrons' representative, was in the chair and the report was presented by Dr. H. C. Wrinch. The present standing of the institution shows a balance of $2,298.81 in outstanding debts with a balance due of $2,275.00 on accrued government grants, leaving a debit balance of $23.81. The running expenses for the year have been $20,424.97. There was received $851.06 in voluntary donations from the people of the district. On account of the increased cost of running expenses a recommendation is being made to the government for an increased grant.

On account of the severe cold the shovel gangs in Bulkley Canon east of New Hazelton have suspended operations.

T. J. Shenton, mine inspector from Prince Rupert, was in Hazelton last week and visited the Silver Standard Mine.

Horace Duhamel has sold out his interest in the Omineca Hotel to Fred Dubord, his partner, and is leaving in a short time for California.

Rev. W. B. Willan returned from Vancouver on Wednesday night where he attended a Forward Movement Convention. He was also present at a reunion of the 13th Field Ambulance Corps, of which he was a member.

Hailburton Peck arrived in town yesterday and will be here a short time on business.

"and in default of a caveat or certificate of its pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons claiming an interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be forever estopped and debarred from setting up claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and shall be deemed to have accepted the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

NO MORE LIMERICKS IN THIS CONTEST TO BE PUBLISHED

The limerick contest is completed, the verses all published with the exception of the rejected ones, and we must again turn to news features to occupy the columns of the News. The following are the final rhymes:—

St. Regis Cafe.

Ever taste a St. Regis cream puff?
Well, you never can eat half enough.

The chocolate eclair
Adorns their bill of fare
And the prices are those that are rare.

If you want something good to eat
Unusually nice for a treat
You'll make no mistake
For pie or short cake
The St. Regis has all others beat.

Table Supply.

There's a something that all ought to know
When out shopping you cityward go
Seeking value for money
Better shop there ain't any
Than the Rupert Table Supply Co.

St. Regis.

Hungry man wanting something to eat
Mind made up he'd enjoy him a treat.
To St. Regis he went
Cheerfully half dollar spent
Satisfied, daily there he takes seat.

Martin O'Reilly

When you feel that you need a new coat
Don't go about acting the goat.
Go down to O'Reilly
He does not charge highly,
But gives you the best that's afloat.

St. Regis.

If the king came to Rupert today
And wanted a high class cafe
Where the culinary art
Is the best on the mart
To St. Regis he'd go right away.

Harry Hanson.

There's Hanson the plumber who toils
At his world famous hot water coils.
With juice he can thaw,
But oh! Harry's jaw
Is as good as his coil that soon boils.

Rupert Table Supply.

The Rupert Table Supply Co.
Is where wise people to buy go.
Of the H. C. of L.
They sound the death knell—
Soup to nuts, prices are right, Oh.

Do you like to be served with a smile
Behind which is no trace of guile?
Then away you must hie
To the Table Supply
And soon you will find it worth while.

There's a store called "The Table Supply,"
On which you may safely rely.
When in need of pure food
Which there, always is good
And the prices are not very high.
There is a young grocer named

MacEvoy

Who for happiness sings all day
"What a joy."
To sell for this man
Who is named Gayigan
And whose goods are unparalleled,
"Come and Buy!"

St. Regis Cafe.

If ever you should see the day
When your wife in the country away,
Against Restaurant fare
You are up in the air,
Just try the St. Regis Cafe.

Table Supply.

The H. C. of L. is so high
That of butchers and bakers I'm shy;
But the Table Supply Co.
Is no profiteer,
So that is the place where I buy.
