YESIGHT-The most valuable of all the senses - is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from ills, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

THE removal of the cause will I often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

Robbers Threaten with Gun but Victim Had no Money.

Last night a Greek named Mike Isatus, of the drydock commissary was held up at Cow Bay at the point of a gun by two wouldbe highwaymen. At 9 o'clock a call was neceived at the police station regarding the incident and Sergeant Adams and Constable McDonald were immediately dispatched to the scene where no clue was to be found. The police are still working on the case to-the shipyards from town and on Third Avenue, near the Pioneer Laundry, he was accosted by two men who inquired where he was going. The night was dark and Met With stormy and the two men told him they were also headed in the same direction so they proceeded along together. One of the men was tall and thin while the other | Lennan, arrived in port on Tueswas short and stocky. When they day morning from the Queen were passing the Yacht Club the | harlotte Islands. The Moresby, short stout person asked him for which is chartered by the Whalen a match. While Isatus was Pulp and Paper Mills, lost a tow getting the match, the tall man of a million feet of logs from the puiled a gun on him and the short logging camp at Thurston Harbor on his person he was told to Hecate Straits and when the tow "beat it" and warned not to tell escaped it was deemed inadvisthe police. The two men then able by the captain to attempt! left post-haste in the direction of recovery until the weather modertown along the railroad track. In ates. his haste to inform the police, Isatus neglected to tell in which REBEKAHS HAD NICE direction the hold-ups had left so they were not able to intercept them on their, way up town.
